THE CITY
SEOUL

SEOUL, the capital of South Korea, is a vibrant and energetic city, offering endless opportunities for discovery and enjoyment.

Being a 'city of villages', it seems that every subway stop adds a whole new dimension to Seoul – you can experience the fashion madness of Gangnam, the alternative music scene in Hongdae, and the diverse shopping streets of Myeongdong.

As one of Asia's leading cultural sites, Seoul has five ancient palaces and five UNESCO World Heritage sites that you must pay a visit to. Come and lose yourself in hundreds of museums, performance centres and galleries. Bargain hard at markets and underground shopping centres, or treat yourself to the delights of the world's leading fashion boutiques.

This city that never sleeps becomes a whole new world at night, where you can party away at fashionable nightclubs and trendy bars, or relax with friends and have chicken and beer with friends at the Han River.

Seoul has something for everyone, regardless of whether you are here just for a week or for a few months. Whatever the time of year, an almost endless selection of entertainment awaits you.

THE CITY
BUSAN

Busan, South Korea's second largest city, is a beautiful city famed for its stunning beaches and lively food scene with fresh, delicious seafood.

Much more relaxed than the capital, Busan exudes a holiday-resort-city vibe, offering a completely different experience from Seoul. A paradise for nature lovers, Busan is surrounded by stunning natural landscapes, with a beautiful coastline and ocean views to the south as well as scenic mountains and cliffs to the north.

Just minutes from the bustling downtown area, you can lounge on one of Asia's finest beaches, explore the wilds of Korea's national parks, find inner peace meditating in a temple, or enjoy the fresh seafood at Korea's largest fish market.

There is also no shortage when it comes to Busan's thriving nightlife. Dance your night away at some of the best nightclubs at Gwangalli Beach, or if you prefer, unwind to some jazz at Haeundae Beach.

With its laid-back vibe, Busan is an ideal study location, that has an affordable cost of living and a welcoming temperate climate throughout the year.

If you wish to enjoy a relaxing and peaceful resort lifestyle whilst experiencing one of Korea's most buzzing cities, Busan is the place to be.

MINI STUDIO

SEOUL I BUSAN

Lexis Korea can arrange accommodation from a selection of mini-studio locations in both Gangnam and Seomyeon. Kitchen and laundry facilities are shared, with most providing free rice, noodles and kimchi.

Please keep in mind however that while mini studios are the cheapest possible private accommodation, the rooms are very small!

Typically, the mini-studios we provide are within a fifteen-minute walk to the Lexis campus, and are a short stroll from a near-endless selection of shops, restaurants and bars. Full CCTV security systems are in place, along with auto-locking doors and on-site security.

STUDENT REVIEWS

YEAH!

SAVANNAH FROM SWITZERLAND

My teacher made the class very fun and had a lot of patience with us. She made me want to interact in class and also pay attention. She would introduce a wide variety of topics as well as vocabulary. Classes were never boring. I stayed in the mini studio and the accommodation was also great. Our mini studio manager was very friendly, willing to help and even take us out for activities. The support system in Lexis is very good and I felt well taken care of. Thank you so much for a great time! I also appreciate that I could learn so much and really see my Korean skills improve. I'd love to come again!

Dana from United States

The teachers are the best part of this experience. They engage the class using various methods to make sure the students understand. They always explain things thoroughly and were very patient with the students. They are fun, yet keep learning a priority. It was also fun to meet students from all around the world with the same goal – learning the Korean language. I wish I could stay much longer I hope to come back and study for much longer next time.

KOREA!

Emma from Thailand

The first day I came to Lexis Korea, the people were helpful, welcoming and lovely. In class, the teachers are all friendly and it's very nice when the teachers give students their Kakaotalk ID because I feel like I could ask them for help anytime and anywhere I go. I love Lexis Korea very much. Thank you so much for giving me such good experiences and such a fun time in Korea.

Natalie from Canada

Staying in Busan and attending Lexis for the past 5 months has been a huge learning curve and exciting all at the same time. I've met many great people from different countries and made friends that I will never forget. Within the classes of Lexis I could feel myself improving as the weeks went by and as I levelled up. There was a good mixture of speaking Korean along with vocabulary and grammatical writing exercises which gave the lessons diversity and helped me improve my Korean quickly. The teacher I had was exceptional at explaining Korean vocabulary and grammar so that I immediately understood the meaning and was able to use the vocabulary or grammatical concepts properly. When I go home, I know that I will always remember my experiences in Korea and in Lexis Korea, I really hope to one day return.

I love LEXIS

Kelly from Australia

The Busan campus is quickly establishing itself as one of the leading Korean language institutes in the country. The teachers are friendly, caring, knowledgeable and always create a positive environment conducive to learning. Studying all day can be tiring, but the times flies because the classes are fun, enjoyable and engaging. My Korean language skills have improved greatly thanks to the wonderful teachers. I highly recommend LEXIS BUSAN.
