The Codrington Language Centre was founded in Barbados in 2007, by Sylvia Johnson, a qualified 'English as a Second Language' (ESL) teacher from Birmingham U.K.
Its courses are offered to adults from non-English speaking countries. The programme includes:

1. Standard 18+ English Language course
   Standard 18+ English Language Course | The Codrington Language Centre, Barbados
2. Intensive 18+ English Language Combination course
   Intensive 18+ English Language Combination Course | The Codrington Language Centre, Barbados
3. (Intensive) Business English as a Second Language
   Business English in Barbados - Home
4. Business English Conversation course (Online Live only – target audience China)
   Business English in Barbados - Business English Conversation Course
5. Aviation English – ICAO
   Aviation English | The Codrington Language Centre, Barbados

With our daily Grammar and Pronunciation (gp) sheets and Personalised Sentence Analysis (PSA), weekly Revision and pronunciation and personal audio recordings, students leave our programme with a greatly increased command of English grammar and the ability to express themselves confidently. (See 'Student Views' on our website for confirmation)

The classes are small (max 6), guaranteeing students personalized attention at all times. The courses are designed to ensure that each student receives the maximum training possible during his or her stay in Barbados, with our fully qualified, friendly and motivated team of teachers. A certificate of participation is presented to each student at the end of the course.
Accommodation comprises home-stay or apartment options, which may be booked directly or through our Centre.

The infrastructure in the island is rated very highly and Barbados is considered one of the safest and most vibrant, yet relaxing, islands in the Caribbean. The bus system in Barbados is excellent and affordable, with routes spanning the entire island.
After class activities include (among others):

- (Scuba) diving
- (Kite) surfing
- Water skiing

The charm, excitement and tranquility of this beautiful island, with its superb beaches, friendly restaurants and vibrant night life, are all enjoyed by our students after class and at weekends. Students may come to the Centre, individually or in groups, independently or through one of our agencies (see website for details). The Centre is rated Five Star by the agencies and on Google. On the website, 'Student Views' give new students an idea of what they'll experience at our Centre.

is designed to ensure that the students remember the correct version of their originally incorrect sentence constructions. The purpose of the weekly revision is to aid the students in remembering everything they've learned during each week at Codrington.

Weekly Audios

Pronunciation audios are sent to each student at the end of each week, with the correct pronunciation of each word originally incorrectly pronounced by the students. Each word is pronounced twice with spaces in between, so as to allow the students to repeat the word and correct it if miss pronounced the first time.

Personal audios are those created by each student after each unit has been completed from the student course book. It is a summary of each unit in the students' own words. These are also sent to the students at the end of each week. Depending on the number of units completed each week, this could be one or two audios per student.
