Genoa

Genoa, the capital of the region Liguria, is a city with a lot to offer to those who have the desire and time to discover its secrets and to experience its fascinating history and traditions, as well as a lively and ever-changing present, with a vision towards the future. The Porto Antico (old port) is one of the most attractive tourist places and one of the most visited in Italy and it is just a few steps from the school.

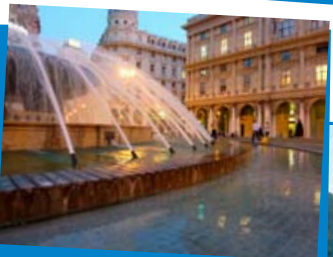

Genoa's old town is the best example of an entirely preserved Medieval town in Europe and in the Mediterranean area: a large part has been declared a World Heritage site by Unesco. Your stay in Genoa will also give you the possibility of visiting the world-renowned village of Portofino and the marvellous Cinque Terre.

The origin of the name Genoa has different interpretations, but the most fascinating of them is that it comes from the Latin word janua, which means door...we like to think of the city as if it were a doorway as it has always been, where ships arriving at its port find a safe shelter and an entryway to the commercial streets of the continent. It can be considered a door to the cultures that throughout the centuries have created the city such as it is today.

Following this interpretation, our desire is that Genoa and the school A Door to Italy serves as the door to Italy for all people wishing to learn Italian language and culture!

Reasons to study Italian in Genoa:

- Genoa is rich in history and it is a town with centuries-old traditions of academic excellence.
- Genoa has a large international community, so foreign students feel at home.
- Genoa is much more affordable than other main cities in Italy such as Florence, Milan, Rome or Venice.
- Genoa is a jumping-off place for visits to Liguria region (Cinque Terre, Portofino, Sanremo); France (Cote d'Azur and Montecarlo) and Tuscany.
- Genoa is just 1 hour and 30 minutes far from Milan.
- Genoa is easy to reach by plane, train or car from all over the world!
- Genoa enjoys typical maritime Mediterranean climate, that gives pleasant and mild temperatures.
- Genoa is a seaside town that offers the possibility to spend also a nice vacation at our beautiful beaches not far from the city centre.
- Genoa is a real Italian city!

EXTENSIVE RANGE OF COURSES

Italian Language and Culture, General Italian, Business Italian, Individual Tuition, Courses for Executives, Combined Courses (group+individual), Cooking classes, Italian and diving, Italian and sailing, Italian and Photography, Cultural courses.

ALL LEVELS

Our programme is based on 6 different levels: from beginners to advanced levels corresponding to the Common European Framework of Languages (from A1 to C2). To assess the level each new student is required to take the entry test, both written and oral during the first day of lessons.

SMALL STUDY GROUPS

The classes are small, with average of 5-6 students per group. This helps to ensure that the students are given personal attention and the opportunity for self expression.

LINGUISTIC MIX

Our students come from all over the world, usually in a group there are no more than two students of the same nationality. Different languages and cultural backgrounds make the group and the lessons very interesting and the learning process particularly fast.

Methodology

Language classes are aimed at developing the student's general language competence and the ability to communicate in an international environment and in everyday situations, as well as at work and in social life situations. Throughout the course, learners expand their vocabulary repertoire and learn new grammatical structures which they practice in the context and, further, they improve their ability to communicate, read and write fluently and correctly. At school we use the communicative method, preferring oral communication but not disregarding aspects of written ability, focusing on the four language abilities (listening, speaking, reading, writing).

OUR TEACHERS

All our teachers are natives and university graduates with wide experience in teaching Italian to foreigners. They regularly follow practical training and refresher courses.

Apart from being able to share their knowledge and practical skills, they create a friendly atmosphere in a group, which contributes to a fast and efficient acquisition of the Italian language.

TEACHING MATERIALS

The school provides students with all books and teaching materials. Most of it is developed by our teachers and is continuously updated. The didactic material is rich and various.

The official book is created and provided by the school: each level has its own book, which is supplied at the beginning of the course. All additional didactic material is drawn from newspapers, magazines, multimedia material and videos.

PLACEMENT TEST

All students, with the exception of those who have no previous knowledge of Italian language, take a written and oral test before the start of the course. This helps us to place them in an appropriate group.

At any point during their stay the students can discuss their progress with their teachers or the Director of Studies. If their learning speed allows it, they can move into a higher level group during the course.

CERTIFICATES

At the end of any course, by a minimum frequency of 80% of the lessons, the school gives the certificate of attendance. The students are given a course certificate specifying their level of Italian and number of hours of attendance.

The courses

A Door to Italy offers a wide variety of general and specialised courses, geared to the specific needs of our students. Courses are catered for groups or individuals and for people coming from different countries and with different purposes and are available all year round. Our Italian language courses can also be held in companies or at student's accommodation.

In winter season extensive evening courses are held for all levels' students.

More targeted courses offer Italian for professionals, such as Italian for business (spoken and written), Italian for law, Italian for healthcare, Italian for hoteliers and for the tourist industry, Italian language of the Opera.

The general Italian language and culture courses

STANDARD COURSE

Lessons are held in small groups (3-8 students)
20 hours of lessons from Monday through Friday
The Standard course is the best way for students of all six ability levels, from the beginner to the advanced, to join grammar and conversation. Groups are heterogeneous, multilingual and small and this helps to ensure that the students are given personal attention and the opportunity for self expression.

INTENSIVE COURSES

Lessons are held in small groups (3-8 students) in the morning and are combined with individual lessons in the afternoon. Choice is among 4, 6, 8 or 10 hours of individual lessons per week. The intensive course is best for all students who desire to learn as much as possible in a short period of time.

The intensive programs have always been successful because the individual lessons are very good at establishing and fixing new aspects of the language.

During private lessons teachers pay attention to student's particular difficulties that can be faced during the study of the Italian language and it will be followed a tailor made program.

INDIVIDUAL OR DUO COURSE

Lessons are 'one-to-one' or in very small groups of 2 students with similar language ability. The program can be completely personalized. The program is constructed around the students' knowledge and needs.

Considering the extreme flexibility of the schedule and attendance, it is particularly suitable for busy people.

The individual course or duo course are also suitable for those people who attend a standard course, but having little time to stay in Italy, they desire to use the individual hours to dive as deep into the language as possible.

Individual and semi-individual classes can also focus on cultural programs or on business Italian.

CONVERSATION COURSE

10 hours of lessons from Monday through Friday

This course is organized at three levels (Beginner

- Intermediate - Advanced) and it is a good occasion to work on oral ability and practise the language in an informal way and in real life situations.

The course is in fact the perfect combination of lessons at school plus practical lessons walking around the ancient streets of Genoa. What could be better than learning Italian whilst having an Italian aperitivo by the sea and talking about culture, cinema and literature?

CERTIFICATION COURSES CELI, CIC, CILS, PLIDA

We propose specific courses, individual or in groups, which aim is to prepare the student to the exam through the study of the past papers.

Individual lessons are available all year round depending on student's needs and plans.

Group lessons are available every 2 weeks just before exam sessions. Lessons are held in the afternoon so that the preparation course can be easily combined to the standard language course in the morning.

WEEK END CRASH COURSE

The week end course is a very good opportunity to improve the language and the conversation in a very short time. There are different possibilities

to study from Friday afternoon or from Saturday

until Sunday afternoon.

Lessons can take place at the school, at the student's accommodation or outdoor around the city centre, at the market, at the bars or maybe walking across the streets and the characteristic

„vicoli“ of Genoa as per your preference.

SECTORIAL LANGUAGES

These courses are designed for students who already have a good knowledge of Italian language and need to improve a specific language such as law, marketing, medicine, tourism, engineering, architecture or other specific languages.

The program is tailored upon students' needs.

SPECIALIST COURSE FOR INTERPRETERS AND TRANSLATORS

This is a tailor-made course, adapted to individual needs.

The aim of the course is to ensure that besides grammar acquisition (in standard courses), students increases their vocabulary and passive understanding of Italian, as well as acquiring in-depth knowledge of Italian politics, history, culture and society.

Exercises are based on text work (anticipation exercises

- filling in gaps, textual analysis) and structured reading comprehension exercises. For interpreters we offer a very wide range of listening exercises, ranging from gap-filling exercises to interpreting exercises (both consecutive and simultaneous). Speeches by politicians, journalists, comedians, trade unionists are used for example.

Our staff are highly specialised, and have a wealth of experience in teaching language professionals. They are of course very open to suggestions by each student. We aim to offer a programme which fully satisfies the needs of every individual.
