Short Description		Location: Our Summer Junior Camp is located at the Elea Village, a primary tourist village in Campania, in the heart of the Cilento National Park. This area is famous for its wonderful natural landscapes, its white sand beaches and the typical Italian food. Campania, a beautiful Italian region, is famous not only for its breath-taking natural surroundings but also for its archaeological areas, which made the Cilento National Park a World Heritage UNESCO protected site. Activities:

Our Junior Camp is especially designed for young people (11 - 16 years) who look for an international study holiday that combines language learning with recreational and social activities, sports, guided excursions to 'Paestum' or 'Velia', both under the Unesco Heritage.

All students will have the opportunity of studying Italian in an easy and active way, learning the language quickly with high professionally trained teachers; the high efficient organization of Elea Village ensures that the program will be conducted in the safest and most professional way by experienced group-leaders.

All students will have a lot of time to enjoy all kinds of summer sports, such as soccer, volley, archery or aqua gym, while the evenings will be devoted to social games in order to promote interaction: cooking pizza, dancing or singing karaoke, playing table-games.

Accommodation:

We provide participants with full-board accommodation in 4-bed bungalows, pick-up service from Naples Airport, transfer to and from Elea Village. Accademia Italiana's Juniors Summer Camp is the best option to live an international experience while studying a new language in an amazing surrounding, in a fun, proactive and healthy environment, with or without family, always supported by professional staff to ensure quality and safety at all times.
