

FLORENCE AND THE ISLAND OF ELBA

Off season is a delightful time to visit Italy. In the city of Florence streets are no longer crowded, the museum lines dwindle, and restaurants are glad to have you. And, with the period of mass-tourism over, one can also more fully appreciate the little treasures of the Island of Elba, the quietness of its villages, the tranquillity of its beaches, the taste of its local foods and wines. So, enroll in one of the following programs and come for a visit to Italy off season, when you can enjoy the leisurely tempo, learn more about Italian history and culture, and improve your ability to speak the beautiful language of Italy. Please note: the following courses are not suitable for complete beginners.
