Intensive French by the week courses

French courses

- Classes all year round
- Courses start every Monday⁽¹⁾
- Choose how many weeks of French you would like to take and when you would like to take them. Courses can be deferred before or while taking classes. 10, 20 and 30 lessons per week, mini-groups (4 to 6 students per class) and groups of 8 to 12 per class.
- Combine classes (intensive French by the week and one to one lessons)
- one-to-one lessons
- Specialized programs
- 1 lesson = 45 minutes
- Minimum age 17

Our method:

Our courses put an accent on speaking and listening skills all while improving the students writing skills. Our teachers know how to create a relaxed and lively atmosphere where students feel free to actively participate, express their views, in role play and in simulations...

Oral and written exercises are used daily to learn or review grammar. Pronunciation is corrected according to each ones needs.

Levels

France Langue uses modern teaching methods: a communicative approach, authentic teaching material, DVD's...

OBJECTIVES

Before beginning a course, students take a written and oral placement test. During the student's time at France Langue, our teachers will constantly make sure that their progression from one level to another will be made according to the personal aptitudes of the student and by how much work they put into the class.

Levels

Our French courses are conform to the Common European Framework Reference (CEFR).

Beginner level corresponds to a maximum of 50 hours of course study. At the end of the session the student should be able to use the language to:

- use basic structures to talk about oneself,
- make contact with others,
- obtain information,
- fill in a form,
- make purchases,
- order in a restaurant...

Elementary level A1 of the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages corresponds to around 100 hours of course study. At the end of the session the student should be able to use the language to:

- comprehend simple concrete situations in everyday life,
- deal with administrative matters,
- start a conversation and participate in it...

Exam preparation: DELF (A1 of the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages)

Intermediate 1 level corresponds to around 200 hours of course study. At the end of the session the student should be able to use the language to:

- comprehend simple subjects about everyday life (travel, pastimes, studies),
- communicate during a trip,
- talk about a project, an idea, ones job, pastimes, studies...

Exam preparation: DELF (A2 of the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages)

Intermediate 2 level corresponds to around 400 hours of course study. At the end of the session the student should be able to use the language to:

- comprehend complex texts,
- talk about a variety of subjects,
- give opinions and debate,
- express oneself in a spontaneous way...

Exam preparation: DELF (B1 of the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages)

Advanced level corresponds to around 300 to 400 hours of course study. At the end of the session the student should be able to use the language to:

- communicate in a spontaneous way in social and professional contexts,
- be comfortable using all tenses...

Exam preparation: DELF (B2 of the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages)

Proficiency level corresponds to 700 to 1000 hours of course study. At the end of the session the student should be able to use the language to:

- easily comprehend any type of document,
- speak fluently,
- handle the subtleties of the language

Exam preparation: DALF (C1 of the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages)

Exam preparation

Students are prepared to take the following exams:

DEL F (Diploma of Studies in the French Language, first degree (A1, A2, B1 and B2) awarded by the Ministry of National Education.)

This exam has 4 parts:

- Reading skills
- Writing skills

French and French cuisine in Paris

In Paris, a French chef teaches you easy to learn recipes and shares her secrets and techniques to make an appetizer, main dish or a dessert.

France Langue organizes numerous activities which complement French courses. Activities take place at the school or elsewhere and are offered at special rates. You can make up your own program!

Discover Paris

With or without a teacher a wide range of activities are offered:

- Several times a week, in the morning or in the afternoon, teachers organize tours to different areas of Paris and to museums. The goal always being to develop cultural awareness.
- Evenings out are organized by France Langue : operas, concerts, theatre and dance.
- Each month, students can participate in on site "tastings" and cooking demonstrations. They can also go to a live radio show at the Maison de Radio France.

- Once a month different day trips around Paris are organized. In the summer, the «Fêtes de nuit» at the Château de Versailles, candlelight dinners at the Vaux-le-Vicomte castle and picnics...
- Weekend excursions are organized to Brittany, Normandy, Burgundy, the castles of the Loire, the Christmas markets in Alsace, the Champagne region...
- Students also are asked to use their artistic talents (musical, culinary...) to organize, at school, evening activities - concerts, buffets...- which create a festive atmosphere.
- Moreover, France Langue has negotiated rates for many activities in Paris: cruise on the Seine river with the Bateaux Parisiens, a day at Disneyland Paris...

Discover the French Riviera

With or without a teacher a wide range of activities are offered.

- Excursions to the «arrière-pays Niçois» : the old villages of Provence with their small streets, charming squares and picturesque market, Grasse - city of perfume.
- For art lovers, the Picasso museum in Antibes, the Fernand Léger museum in Biot, the Chagall and Matisse museums in Nice and also the museum of Modern and Contemporary Art, and the famous Maeght Foundation in Saint-Paul de Vence.

- Not to mention Monaco and Cannes as well as the Nice Jazz festival which takes place every summer.
- France Langue organizes regularly an evening event : operas, concerts, theatre, restaurant, disco... with one or two teachers.
- Students also are asked to use their artistic talents (musical, culinary...) to organize, at school, evening activities - concerts, buffets... - which create a festive atmosphere.

For the sports minded : not far from the school, water sports and a wonderful golf course are available as well as snow skiing only one hour away from Nice.

France Langue enjoys a privileged location in both Paris and Nice.

In Paris

France Langue, located just a step from the Place Victor Hugo with its cafes and shops, is only a ten minute walk from the Place Charles de Gaulle Etoile and Trocadéro. Near to the Champs-Élysées, in a typical French neighborhood, the school has excellent bus (52 and 82) and metro (lines 1, 2 and 6) services.

In Nice

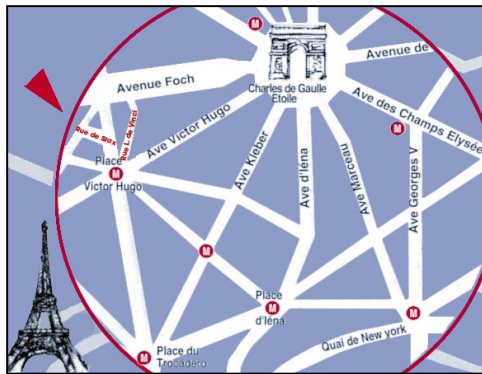

In the famous sunshine capital of the French Riviera, the school is located right in the heart of town and close to bus services. The beach and the famous Promenade des Anglais are only a fifteen minutes walk away. All the cities of the French Riviera from Monaco to Cannes can be easily reached by train in thirty minutes. The train station is a ten minutes walk from the school.

Paris and/or Nice

In Paris and Nice, the schools are open throughout the year. It is possible to begin a general French course in Paris and finish it in Nice and vice versa, under the same terms and conditions.

Paris

The school is only a 10 minute walk from the Etoile and Trocadéro.

- Méto: Line 2: station Victor-Hugo
