Salzburg – Variety & Flair

Located in the heart of Europe and easily accessible by all means of transport, Salzburg offers a diversity equaled by very few other cities in the world.

Known around the world as a center of art and culture, Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart's native city has much more to offer than just its festivals during summer and Easter, theater productions and museum exhibitions.

Whether you are an art connoisseur or a gourmet, music lover or a holiday-maker looking for relaxation, a daydreamer or a night owl, you will simply love Salzburg and the variety it offers its visitors. Go for a leisurely stroll through the narrow streets and alleys of this baroque city. Countless stores invite you to do some shopping, and from the terraces of the world-famous coffee houses you can enjoy the view of beautiful architecture in the well-preserved, historical city center and take a break from sightseeing with a delicious piece of cake.

A City & its Surroundings

Why not visit the Hohen-salzburg fortress, the largest, completely preserved fortress in central Europe, or Hellbrunn Palace with its world famous fountains? Or maybe the romantic Mirabell Gardens with their wonderful view or Mozart's birthplace in the Getreidegasse...?

Salzburg also has a lot to offer to nature lovers, or those looking for the chance to relax and play sports. Just beyond the city gates one of the most beautiful natural land scapes of Central Europe unfolds before your very eyes. The Alps are only a few kilometers away from Salzburg; there you have ideal conditions for hiking and skiing. Numerous lakes (many of which are of drinking quality) like the Wolfgangsee and Fuschlsee are great places to cool off during the summer.

inlingua-Trainers

All inlingua teachers are native speakers and are trained and supervised by an international training network, which also keeps each school abreast of the latest developments in language training methodology. They do not only teach their mother tongue but also the culture of the country.

inlingua Direct Method

The inlingua Direct Method guarantees rapid acquisition of a foreign language without tiresome vocabulary drills; right from the start you speak only the new language. This is the best and most efficient way to learn to speak a foreign language fluently in a short time.

inlingua Materials

The oral lessons are supported by authentic materials (books, videos, CDs, CD ROMs) developed and continuously updated by inlingua's Methods and Materials Center in Bern matching the international testing standards of the European Framework for Languages.

Small Group Courses

Courses of varying duration and intensity begin all year round for beginners and advanced learners (minimum age: 16 years). They are held from Monday to Friday in the mornings or afternoons depending on the relevant level. Restricting group sizes to a maximum of six people (eight during summer) ensures a high level of success in the language-learning process.

Training is conducted by native speakers using the tried and tested Direct Method with the aid of materials developed especially for inlingua.

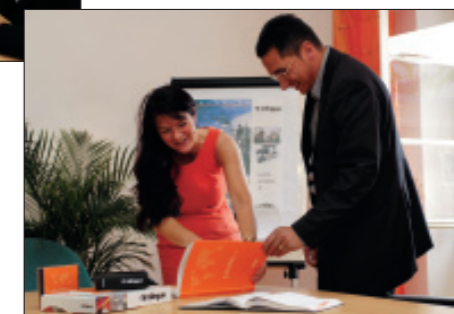

Less intensive evening courses for working people start once a month (please ask for the detailed brochure).

One-to-One Training

If you prefer the most intensive kind of training or are unable to fit a group course into your schedule, simply choose the days (Monday to Friday, weekends on request), times (8.00 h to 21.30 h) and intensity which suit you best. You can then have the teacher's undivided attention. The content and pace of the training will be adjusted exactly to your needs and learning ability.

This type of lesson is especially suited for people who require intensive preparation for detailed negotiations, presentations, conversation, talking on the telephone, as well as preparation for international exams.

Seminars for Business Purposes

inlingua Salzburg regularly offers special programs in small groups, in which you can expand your knowledge by means of specific vocabulary from different specialist areas, e.g. German for managers and politicians, German for the tourist industry, German for musicians or sports(wo)men, etc.

Specialized Programs

We would be pleased to inform you further about our 'Parent & Child Courses', 'DaF Teacher Seminars', 'Premium Courses' for students 50 years and over, as well as other special programs.
