TOULOUSE is a key location to discover the South of France. Come learn French in Toulouse and enjoy its lively atmosphere!

- The 4th largest city in France, Toulouse has the perfect balance: the city keeps its “small town” spirit but you will discover a rich history and culture, a very active nightlife and everything a big city has to offer.
- Cosmopolitan yet friendly atmosphere: Toulousans are friendly and open. They will help you find your way if you get lost and you’ll easily make new friends in the many cafés, bars and clubs of Toulouse. There you will certainly practice your newly acquired French!
- Authentic French spirit: In Toulouse you can still experience a typical French way of life, and share in this lifestyle. Attend a Rugby match at the Stade Toulousain, visit the outdoor markets on Sunday morning or go shopping in the vieille ville on a Saturday afternoon.
- Lively Student Atmosphere: Toulouse is the 2nd university town in France, attracting thousands of young people from throughout France, Spain and other European countries to study in its famous public Universities and other “Grandes Ecoles”.
- Safe city: Unlike other bigger cities, Toulouse is known to be a safe city. You can go out walking at any time of day or night and feel that you are in a secure environment.
- Inexpensive city with a high quality of life.
- Ideal geographic location: near the restored medieval walled city of Carcassonne, near Albi, with its cathedral and Toulouse-Lautrec museum, near prehistoric grottoes with preserved cave paintings, near picturesque mediaeval villages such as Cordes, near the castle of Foix, the remains of Cathar strongholds at Montsegur and others. Toulouse’s central location makes it easy for students to organize their own excursions to the Pyrenees, the Atlantic or the Mediterranean coast.
- Ideal climate: the climate in Toulouse is temperate; like the climate throughout Southern France, it is very pleasant. Winters are mild, summers are long and hot, the autumns are sunny.
- Key location to discover the unique South West French cuisine: enjoy a cassoulet, a gasconne salad, a bottle of Gaillac...
- Rich cultural heritage: Toulouse has much to offer in the way of cultural outings: Basilique St. Sernin, Cathedral of St. Etienne, the Capitole... Not to miss: attending the many cultural events and festivals happening throughout the year in Toulouse (Rio Loco, Le Printemps de septembre, ...), as well as theatre, dance, opera and the several cinemas with their wide selection of International and French films.
- High-tech industry town. Hub of France's aerospace industry, biotechnology and high tech research and development.
- Convenient transport: Toulouse International Airport, 9km from the city centre, places Toulouse an hour from Madrid and Paris and an hour and twenty minutes from London.

COURSES

We are committed to provide the very best learning conditions:

- A teaching team composed of experienced native speakers, all with university credentials in teaching French as a Foreign Language (FLE), attentive to the expectations and rhythms of each student. Our teachers have backgrounds and a passionate interest in a variety of complementary fields, such as theatre, literature, linguistics and music, which broadens their approach to language teaching.
- All classes held in small groups – never more than 12 participants maximum.
- Oral and written tests on the first day result in a positive evaluation of each person's level based on the CECR – the Common European Framework of Reference for evaluating language performance, defined by the Council of Europe – for an efficient organization of all participants into level groups that are well-adapted and homogenous.
- First day welcome to the school and Toulouse includes an information packet detailing upcoming events, hints on what to do and see in town, a guided walking tour of the city and an optional lunch in a typical Toulousan restaurant.
- Course content that corresponds to the progressive levels defined by the CECR facilitates official recognition of your course throughout Europe and internationally, and opens the possibility of receiving course credits from participating universities.
- Flexible and dynamic teaching methods and current themes which will develop your confidence in communicating in today's world and allow you to practice a language that is up-to-date and adapted to a variety of real-life situations. Courses make use of a wide range of materials developed by the teaching staff and adapted from existing manuals and methods. Our teaching methods rely on active supports – role play, news & internet articles, photographs & video, songs & audio recordings, games of expression & memorization, authentic documents of French daily life – all elements that inspire motivation, exchange, investment and creativity, the driving forces of the learning process.
- An optional final exam lets you concretely measure your progress and the skills you've gained during your course.

TANDEM® LANGUAGE EXCHANGE

DESCRIPTION:

- Linguistic exchange method:
 - ✓ Puts students in contact with local French speakers for conversation exchanges. Initial meetings between conversation partners are organized by Langue Onze Toulouse, after which you will be free to meet informally with your partner outside of the school. This system of exchange allows you to get to know more about French culture and at the same time apply what you learned in the classroom in real-life situations.
- 2 ways of doing a Tandem® exchange:
 - ✓ Face to face Tandem®: A typical conversation exchange lasts from 2 hours, twice per week. For half of each meeting you will speak in your language, helping and correcting your partner, and for the other half, in French, being helped by your partner.
 - ✓ E- Tandem®: Tandem® exchange via Internet - when the circumstances don't permit face-to-face contact.
- Helpful links:
