Learning the Anglo-Continental way

Our English language programmes have been developed over many years, with the emphasis on our students’ individual requirements:

- Short-term and long-term courses to meet every need, including internationally recognised examinations
- Diagnostic entry testing for accurate placement
- Friendly, qualified and experienced teachers to help you with every aspect of your studies
- Tuition at all levels from Beginner to Advanced
- Modern techniques and real-life practice to build your confidence and help you to learn more easily
- Individual consultation with your personal teacher
- Special guidance and advice for academic study programme students and for university entry

Our Teachers

Having a recognised diploma-level qualification in teaching English to speakers of other languages is a requirement for our year-round teachers. In addition to this, they will also have extensive teaching experience in a variety of professional areas. It is a minimum requirement that teachers have either the Cambridge CELTA or Trinity College TESOL Certificate. Teachers are also expected to have a degree level qualification.

Within our established long-term team, a number of teachers have Masters level qualifications, others have qualified teacher status (QTS) and some have specialist subject qualifications. A substantial number of our teachers have special responsibilities according to their own interests and areas of expertise.

Bournemouth is the most popular place to study English in the UK outside of the capital. It is one of the most cosmopolitan seaside resorts on the South Coast of England. Less than two hours from London with excellent travel connections by air, rail and road.

This university town is ideally located, with 12 kilometres of sandy, Blue Flag award-winning beaches, sparkling sea and scenic coastal views. The vibrant town centre has a wide range of shops, restaurants, cafés, bars, cinemas and theatres, as well as beautiful parks and gardens, mini golf and an aquarium. Bournemouth also offers an extensive range of sporting and leisure activities, including the Coastal Activity Park.

There is a variety of local attractions, such as the stunning World Heritage Jurassic coastline, Poole
Harbour - one of the largest natural harbours in the world - and the beautiful New Forest National Park, a historical Royal hunting ground. Other places of interest include the ancient site of Stonehenge, the cathedral cities of Winchester and Salisbury, the Isle of Wight and the Isle of Purbeck. The Roman City of Bath and the University City of Oxford are also within easy reach.
Our Intensive courses have established the firm foundation on which all of our teaching is based. They offer a choice of programmes for everyone who needs an improved level of English for academic, social or professional reasons.

Your choice of courses
When you enrol, you can select the number of lessons per week which suits you best, and the course duration which meets your needs. You can be sure that, whether you are a complete beginner, or whether you already have a good command of the language, there will be a class suitable for you.

- presentation and practice of new language
- rapid development of oral fluency, accuracy and conversation skills

If you follow a course of 25 or 30 lessons per week, you will have the additional benefit of language extension and supplementary skills.

* Course X-4.30 only
At Anglo-Continental, we have a long successful history in preparing our students for English language examinations, which are widely accepted in academic and commercial circles throughout the world. We provide courses in preparation for highly regarded examinations such as the International English Language Testing System (IELTS) and the University of Cambridge First Certificate (FCE).

Courses are designed to develop the necessary skills relevant to the particular examination and to present and practise language appropriate to the students' needs. Timed practice tests provide an idea of what it is like to work under pressure during a real examination.

Intensive IELTS Preparation Course

Recognised worldwide, IELTS assesses the language ability of candidates who need to study or work where English is the language of communication. Our comprehensive course is intended for those who wish to benefit from intensive preparation for the IELTS test, which includes listening, speaking, reading and writing components. This full-time course provides 30 lessons per week, allowing participants the opportunity to maximise their development in each of the four language skills.

Intensive FCE Preparation Course

The First Certificate in English, an established Cambridge English Language Assessment examination, is for people who need to use everyday spoken and written English for work and study purposes. Our 30 lesson per week course focuses on all five parts of the exam, covering techniques such as how to approach typical tasks, with special guidance on writing.

Intensive Courses plus Examination Practice

These courses aim to raise your level of general English by providing 25 lessons per week of intensive English language study, combined with 5 lessons per week of practice for the examination of your choice: IELTS, TOEFL or CAE. Teachers will familiarise students with the format of the examination and will introduce strategies for dealing with typical questions.

Programme Features

- Examination preparation and practice for IELTS, FCE, CAE and TOEFL
- Individual Tutorials with the teacher and the Course Coordinator
- Free access to the multi-media learning centre
The following examinations can be arranged:

For many business and professional people, the ability to speak English is no longer a luxury; it is a necessity for success. At Anglo-Continental, we offer a choice of scheduled and specially arranged courses to meet this need.

Scheduled Courses

Our short business and specialised courses cover the following areas:

- English for Business
- English for Finance
- English for Management
- English for Marketing and Sales
- English for Medical Professionals
- English for Medical Students
- English for Law

They are suitable for people at all levels of an organisation, from administrative staff to management, and for students preparing for professional employment. They combine 20 lessons of intensive general English tuition with 10 lessons each week developing the language of your chosen specialisation - arranged in independent modules so that you can enrol for a period of time convenient to you. The essential language used in these specialised areas is listed on pages 20 and 22.
Business and Specialised Lessons
Your teachers, who have background knowledge of the subject of your choice, will use a wide variety of methods and materials, including authentic texts, documents and recorded material appropriate to your work. Role-play, student presentations, and guided and free discussion will improve your fluency and give you the realistic practice you need.

Additional Study
Homework (written assignments, preparation and revision) is an integral part of the course. We also recommend that some time should be devoted to additional study in the multi-media learning centre, with computers, internet access, TV, DVD, reference books/materials and private study facilities. Free wireless internet access is also available on campus.

Language Level for Entry
If you would like an indication of your English language level, you can take an online test before you enrol. This will be used as a guide and final acceptance is subject to our entry test held at the school. If you are not yet at the minimum level required, you will be transferred to the General English Programme.

Group Bookings
Business and Specialised Courses are available for individuals and groups. Please contact us for a group quotation.
We offer an option to upgrade your course and take your 20 lessons of intensive English tuition in a mini group of a maximum of 4 students in the exclusive Executive Centre (Courses B-1.30E - S-6.30E).

More and more people in their fifties, sixties and beyond appreciate the attraction of a short, well-organised study programme - especially when it is combined with visiting and exploring new destinations. If you are fifty or over, this programme offers you the ideal opportunity to visit England for a stimulating and productive holiday.

Your classes
- You will study in a class where the minimum age is fifty. There is no upper age limit.
- The classroom approach is to create an informal atmosphere for purposeful learning, conducted at a pace suitable for those who may not have been in a classroom for many years.
- Our friendly and approachable teachers will make the classes interesting and enjoyable and will use modern teaching methods and materials to build your confidence in speaking English.
- Group activities will be arranged to improve your comprehension and communication skills, such as guided and free conversation practice, role play and discussion of aspects of British and international life, customs and culture.
- Learn in an international environment and make friends with people from many other countries.
- Free access to the multi-media learning centre.

Excursions and leisure activities
Outside the classroom, you will have the benefit of guided excursions to places of historical and cultural interest and of carefully arranged leisure activities. You will also have time for sightseeing and shopping on your own or with your new friends from the school.

Your accommodation
We normally provide accommodation with selected homestay families so that you will have no worries about your welfare and your meals. If you prefer to be independent, however, we can recommend hotels or guest houses to meet your needs.

Conditions of enrolment 2018
Cancellation or postponement of a course
A course is not transferable but may be cancelled or postponed and full course fees will be refunded (except for bank charges), provided that written notice is received by Anglo-Continental not less than four weeks before the scheduled date of course commencement. In the absence of such notice, or if less than four weeks’ notice is received:
- in the case of cancellation, a fee of £ 500 is payable in lieu of notice;
- in the case of postponement, Anglo-Continental reserves the right to levy a charge to cover administration and accommodation costs incurred on the student’s behalf;
- should the application for a visa be refused, we will refund any published fees paid in advance (after deduction of an administration charge of £ 100) provided that you send us a copy of the letter of refusal before the intended start date of the course.

Any additional charges for services provided by a third party (such as Home Office CAS charges, hotel accommodation, flat rental and courier services) are not refundable.

Curtailment of a course
(Excluding courses with reduced fees)
If a course of more than eight weeks’ duration is curtailed by the student, four weeks’ notice must be given to the school. If no notice or insufficient notice is given, course fees must be paid in lieu of notice together with any accommodation charges due. In all cases, course fees must be paid for a minimum of eight weeks.

If a course of eight weeks’ duration or less is curtailed, no refund of course fees can be given. Students must have personal insurance against inability to attend or continue a course for medical or compassionate reasons (see ‘liability and insurance’).

Change of course
(Excluding courses with reduced fees)
If, after commencement of a course, the student wishes to change to a course of a lower specification, two weeks’ notice must be given to the school. If approved, the change must be made on a scheduled entry date to the amended course. The credit is not transferable to any other person and no cash refund can be given.

Incorrect declaration
Anglo-Continental reserves the right to withdraw a student from the course if an incorrect declaration has been made or if information regarding a student’s ability to participate in the course has not been disclosed to us before course commencement. In this case, no refund can be made.

English language level
Any information about your level received prior to your arrival will act as a guide only. Your English language level will be determined by our entry test on your first day. If you are not at the required level for your course, you will be transferred to a suitable alternative course.

Accommodation
The fee for the first week in homestay accommodation includes a non-refundable administration charge to cover the cost of selection, reservation and administration.

Any request to change or leave accommodation, either separately or in conjunction with the curtailment of a course, must be made to Anglo-Continental at least two weeks before the date of the proposed move and approved before the change is made. Failing this, accommodation fees are payable in lieu of notice. An administrative charge of £ 25 will be made for each request to change homestay family accommodation. Accommodation fees continue to be payable for any periods of absence during the course.

Photography, film, sound recordings and written work
During our courses we sometimes take photographs, film footage and sound recordings, some of which may be incorporated into items such as, but not limited to, future publicity material, social media sites, tests and educational materials. We may also wish to use examples of your written work. If you do not wish to participate in any of these items, please advise Anglo-Continental in writing before the start of the course, otherwise it is understood that you have unreservedly given your consent for these to be used.

Liability and insurance
Anglo-Continental will not be liable for any loss, damage, illness or injury to persons or property, however caused, except where such liability is imposed by statute. Anglo-Continental will also not be held responsible for any delay in scheduled services of third party companies or if any service cannot be provided as specified. Any complaints, liabilities, losses or damages arising should be submitted to the third party company concerned. It is the student’s responsibility to take out personal insurance against all such risks, including inability to attend or continue a course and for the payment of medical expenses.

Transfer fuel surcharge
If a transportation company levies a surcharge because of an increase in the price of fuel, the additional cost will be charged to you. Please check the website for the latest charges. www.anglo-continental.com/more-info/transfer-services

Force majeure
It shall be a fundamental condition of the contract between the student and Anglo-Continental or its Agents that neither Anglo-Continental nor its Agents shall be in any way liable to the student in the event of any service contracted to be supplied by them becoming impossible to supply by reason of industrial dispute or other cause outside their control.

Data protection
To ensure that your course at Anglo-Continental meets your requirements we and, if appropriate, the Anglo-Continental Agent in your own country will need to use the information you provide (such as your personal data and details of any special requirements) in order to process your enrolment.

We must pass your information on to those involved in providing you with services relating to your stay at Anglo-Continental such as, but not limited to, your reservation of accommodation and transfer services. The information may also be provided, if required, to security or credit-checking organisations, customs and the Home Office as required by UK law.

Please note that where your information is held by an Anglo-Continental Agent, it will be subject to your Agent’s own data protection policy and their country’s national law.

Validity of conditions
These Conditions of enrolment and Additional conditions for long-term courses are valid from 1 January 2018 and are subject to English law. The English language version is legally binding in all cases. Anglo-Continental reserves the right to waive or adjust the specifications of a course, which may include age limits, without prior notification.

Additional conditions apply to:
- Long-Term General Programme
  Courses: G-1.20L/G-1.25L/G-1.30L
- Academic Study Programme
  Course: A-1.30

Curtailment of a course
If a long-term course is curtailed after its commencement, no refund of course fees can be given. It is the student’s responsibility to take out personal insurance against inability to attend or continue a course for medical or compassionate reasons (see ‘liability and insurance’ above).

Change of course
An enrolment for a long-term course may not be changed after course commencement except where the student wishes to prolong or include a course of a higher specification with the approval of the school.

School holidays
Students following long-term courses may apply to take holidays, in complete weeks from Monday to Friday, at times convenient to the programme and with the approval of the Director of Studies. Holidays are allowed on the basis of a maximum of two weeks per twelve weeks of the programme and application must be made to the school not less than two weeks in advance. In each case the total course duration will be extended to compensate for the number of weeks’ holiday taken. Holidays may not be taken when following intensive IELTS or FCE preparation, Examination Practice or Business and Specialised options.

Anglo-Continental has a legal duty of care for students under 18 years of age. A holiday or break in stay can only be authorised once written permission has been received from the student’s parent/guardian.
