

Explore Japanese Outdoors in Our Eco-Learning Adventure!

The Cross Spring Academy is an outdoor experience & survival camp held in Nagatoro, a beautiful location not far from Tokyo. Participants stay in camp cottages. Meals are served outdoors. The experience includes learning how to cook and prepare food outdoors. Participants learn survival, first aid, & outdoor skills, & they become familiar with all of the tools for life outdoors...in the exotic outdoors of Japan!

Details

AGES: 6 to 18 years old

TUITION: ¥150,000

REGISTRATION: ¥15,000

INTERNATIONAL FEE: ¥25,000

ROOM & BOARD: Included

ITINERARY

3/30

Depart to Nagatoro.
Arrive, check in, and begin setting camp.
After Lunch, tour local community, culture, & shrines.
At Camp, lessons and activities in orienteering, ecology, and media capture.

3/31-4/1

Archery!
Learn the skills of archery, western and Japanese.
Rock Climbing!
Learn the techniques, and practice them indoors and out.
Media Tech: Drone, gimbal, photography, and video hunting..

4/2

Rafting! In the Arakawa River. Discover this thrilling activity.
Lunch by the River, using outdoor tools, cooking skills, and foods
Survival Skills: Meet local outdoors specialists and learn survival skills for the Japanese outdoors.

4/3

Hike: Hodosan Mountain. Practice outdoor skills on the way: Water collection, first aid, and orienteering.
Japanese BBQ by the River! With local kids.
Soccer Spectacular: Soccer match with locals.
Return: to Tokyo.

*Schedule is subject to change

