

About us

In 2004 we founded the language school Academia Pradoventura with the vision to create a connecting link between people who want to get immersed in the Spanish language and culture and the natives. We chose the location Prado del Rey because it is an enchanting place that preserves its original character without the influence of mass tourism.

We welcome you as friends, not as clients and are concerned with giving you an understanding of Spain's language, culture, landscape and way of life and making you feel at home in a relaxed and friendly atmosphere, so that you can say "I felt like a local" at the end of your stay.
