EDINBURGH AND SCOTLAND

Edinburgh is the capital of Scotland and is home to around 500,000 people. It combines fascinating history, beautiful scenery, cosmopolitan lifestyles, and lively international festivals. The city is full of things to see and do – here are some reasons to come to this historical, exciting, safe and beautiful city. Whatever you want from your visit to Edinburgh and Scotland, you won't be disappointed.

Just a few hours from Edinburgh is Scotland's stunning scenery and unspoilt wilderness. If you love the outdoors, there is camping, hiking, fishing, hunting and water sports. Try golf in St. Andrews, see Stirling Castle and the William Wallace monument or enjoy a weekend tour to Loch Ness, the Isle of Skye and the Castle of Eilean Donan.

Historical monuments and buildings

Visit Edinburgh Castle for crowns, jewels, swords and Edinburgh's oldest building. See how the British monarchy lives at Holyrood Palace, attend a concert at St. Giles Cathedral or walk down The Royal Mile and visit the statue of Greyfriars Bobby. Climb the 287 steps of the Scott Monument or Calton Hill for beautiful city views.

Dark Edinburgh

Take a ghost tour in Europe's most haunted city and learn about the ghosts and murderers of Edinburgh's past, discover the underground city at Mary King's Close, scream scream scream at Edinburgh Dungeons, learn about witches and grave robbers on the Edinburgh Ghost Bus Tour or have a drink at the Jekyll and Hyde or Frankenstein's Bar.

Museums

Edinburgh is full of museums and most of them are completely free to enter. There is the Museum of Childhood, a Writer's Museum, see £1 million at the Museum on the Mound, the gruesome Surgeons' Hall Museum, traditional lives at Gladstone's Land and finally the fantastic National Museum of Scotland with its history of Scotland and international collections.

ART

For traditional art, you can try the National Gallery of Scotland, the National Portrait Gallery or the Queen's Gallery at Holyrood Palace and for modern art, spend some time at The Dean Galleries, Modern Art Gallery, the Fruitmarket Gallery or the City Art Centre.

Music and Dancing

For live music, there is the Jazz Bar or folk music, try the Royal Oak pub. If you want to dance late into the night, see the latest nightclub listings on The List website or have enormous fun at a Scottish dancing party, called a Ceilidh.

Something Different

Discover crazy illusions at Camera Obscura, take a free tour of the Scottish Parliament, find out how whisky is made (and drink some) at Johny Walkers, try a lively walking tour of the city, see how the Queen travelled the world on the Royal Yacht Britannia, or have a coffee in Victoria Street – which inspired Harry Potter's Diagon Alley.

PARKS AND GARDENS

Edinburgh is a very green city. Try climbing Arthur's Seat (250m) for views of the whole city, have a BBQ with friends in "the Meadows", take a walk through the Botanical Gardens and visit the glasshouses or just lie on the grass in Princes Street Gardens.

ACCOMMODATION

accommodation options

At Alba English, we can organise homestay accommodation. Our fantastic accommodation partner ensures that our students have the best experience possible while staying in Edinburgh.

You will live with a local host and have a fully immersed Scottish experience! Our hosts are of all ages, individuals and families.

In a homestay, you're a guest in someone's house; it's not a hotel. You will have to follow the house rules and the timetable; dinner is often around 6 p.m., and you must be quiet when people are sleeping. You will also have the chance to exchange with the hosts and gain extra English practice outside the classroom.

Some people prefer to have their own space and freedom, so we have information about other types of accommodation on our website. You can go to our accommodation page to find out more about finding a room in a shared flat, hostel or residence.

HOMESTAY PRICES

- close to the school when possible;
- maximum distance is 60 minutes by bus;
- close to public transport.
