The Common European Framework (CEF) is a system of level indicators for language courses that is used throughout Europe. Each language course is described on the basis of CEF levels so that students can clearly see which level of proficiency is required at the beginning of the course and which level of proficiency will be achieved after successful completion of the course.

AM Language Level Indicator	CEF Level Indicator	What Students Can Do At This Level
Beginner	A1	Can understand and use familiar everyday expressions and very basic phrases aimed at the satisfaction of needs of a concrete type. Can introduce him/her and others and can ask and answer questions about personal details such as where he/she lives, people he/she knows and things he/she has. Can interact in a simple way provided the other person talks slowly and clearly.
Elementary
Pre-intermediate	A2	Can understand sentences and frequently used expressions related to areas of most immediate relevance (e.g. very basic personal and family information, shopping, local geography, employment). Can communicate in simple and routine tasks requiring a simple and direct exchange of information on familiar and routine matters. Can describe in simple terms aspects of his/her background, immediate environment and matters in areas of immediate need.
		Can understand the main points of clear standard input on familiar matters regularly encountered in work, school, leisure etc. Can deal with most situations likely to arise whilst travelling in an area where the language is spoken. Can produce simple connected text on topics which are familiar or of personal interest. Can describe experiences and events, dreams, hopes and ambitions, and briefly give reasons and explanations of various options.
Intermediate	B1	Can understand the main areas of complex text on both concrete and abstract topics, including technical discussions in his/her field of specialization. Can interact with a degree of fluency and spontaneity that makes regular interaction with native speakers quite possible without strain for either party. Can produce clear, detailed text on a wide range of subjects and explain a viewpoint on a topical issue giving the advantages and disadvantages of various options.
Upper-intermediate	B2	Can understand a wide range of demanding, longer texts and recognize implicit meaning. Can express him/herself fluently and spontaneously without much obvious searching for expressions. Can use language flexibly and effectively for social, academic and professional purposes. Can produce clear, well-structured, detailed text on complex subjects, showing controlled use of organization patterns, connectors and cohesive devices.
Advanced	C1	Can understand with ease virtually everything heard or read. Can summarize information from different spoken and written sources, reconstructing arguments and accounts in a coherent presentation. With the world fast becoming a smaller place, it is now more common for non-native English speakers to attend an English-speaking university or to migrate to an English-speaking country. Students interested in sitting for an internationally recognised examination can take an Examination Preparation Course with AM Language covering the major examinations; the Cambridge Examination Courses plus IELTS, TOEFL, TOLES and WEFT. These courses are available all year round.

Courses can be booked for any number of weeks, depending on the examination and the needs and level of the applicant. Spread over 20, 25 or 30 sessions a week, each session being 45 minutes long, participants focus on grammar awareness and use of language. They develop their four skills of reading, listening, writing and speaking and also concentrate on more specific examination subject requirements.

Each course includes: 20 sessions per week of General English Language Development focusing on grammar, vocabulary and fluency skills. 5/10 sessions per week of Examination Preparation focusing on specific examination stylistic requirements.

BEC (BUSINESS ENGLISH CERTIFICATE) EXAM PREPARATION COURSE – CAMBRIDGE

BEC is offered at two levels, Vantage and Higher. BEC examinations are ideal if students are preparing for a career in business. An internationally recognised business qualification can help them show that they have learned English to an appropriate standard and can use it in a professional context. The course covers all aspects of Business English with a focus on exam preparation for the BEC Cambridge exams. It includes writing reports, speaking on the phone, presenting in English and using formal vocabulary. The course is designed to give students all they need to interact through English in a business work environment and so open up job opportunities.

Lesson Times: Lessons are held in the morning, afternoon and evening between 0830 & 2030 Hrs. AM Language reserves the right to change lessons times when absolutely necessary.

Taxi transfer: Please ensure that you are waiting for your taxi at the prearranged time as indicated in your acceptance letter. In case of problems, we will try to contact you on the mobile phone number you provide on your enrolment form. If we do not manage to get through to you, the taxi will wait for a maximum of 60 minutes from landing time and will then leave. At this point, it will be your responsibility to get to your destination and AM Language will not refund you for your booked transfer nor any expenses incurred.

Work placements: Work placements are subject to an admin fee of €50 when Accommodation or Tuition is not booked.

Complaints Procedure: At AM Language, we take students' complaints very seriously. If at any time during their stay students are not happy with any area of service, they are requested to fill in a complaint form, which can be obtained from our customer care representative at reception desk. No complaints are accepted by AM Language if not brought to our attention in writing through the complaint form during the stay. While we cannot guarantee that there will not be any problems, we do guarantee that every complaint will be tackled immediately and all the necessary action will be taken to resolve the issues within a maximum of 48 hours.

Throughout their stay, all students will also be required to fill in various questionnaires: First Impressions Questionnaire, weekly In-Process Questionnaire, and an End of Stay Questionnaire. We use these questionnaires to evaluate all our students' levels of satisfaction in all areas and we encourage every student to use these Questionnaires to bring to our attention any areas for improvement.

Attendance Policy and Discipline:

Punctuality: Students are requested to attend lessons on time. Students who are more than 10 minutes late will not be permitted to enter the classroom as this will disturb the other students and will be asked to wait until the next lesson. The tuition department reserves the right to refuse entry to class to students who are regularly late without a valid reason.

Attendance Policy: Students should attend all lessons according to their scheduled timetables. Attendance is recorded for all lessons. Students who are on a visa and whose attendance falls below 85% are breaking the conditions of their permitted visa. AM Language is required to report any students on a visa who miss classes to the immigration authorities which could result in their visa being revoked. Visa students who are sick should not attend class, but should obtain a medical certificate from a registered doctor and present a copy of it to the tuition office for their records.

Holidays: Time away from the course must be authorised by the sales office. Students who wish to suspend their lessons in order to go on holiday should advise the sales office a minimum of two weeks prior to the start of their holiday. Once holidays are set only one change will be provided without an extra charge. Subsequent changes will incur in €50 per change.

Student's tuition course will be extended (if requested) free of charge. The school will not extend the student's accommodation. Students wishing to extend their accommodation will have to pay the brochure price. The school does not guarantee that any students returning from their holiday break will have same class, teacher or accommodation.

Students who are on a student visa will only be authorised to take a holiday if their attendance is over 85%. Therefore students are advised not to book flights until their holiday has been approved and booked with the sales office. AM Language cannot be held responsible if flights have already been booked and the holiday is unauthorised.

Certificate: AM Language will issue a certificate of attendance to every student on departure, provided they have attended a minimum 75% of their lessons. Any student who has attended less than 75% will not receive a certificate. The percentage of attendance is printed on the certificate along with the number of booked hours and the final level of English attained on departure.

Mobile phones: The use of mobile phones for personal calls and messaging is not permitted in the classroom. Furthermore, unless direction is given by the teacher, the use of mobile phones or electronic translators is not normally permitted during lessons as they may inhibit learning.

Classrooms: Classrooms are air-conditioned for students' comfort and well-being. Students are advised that they should bring a sweater or cardigan to class in the event that they feel cold.

Sickness: In order to prevent the spread of germs to classmates and teachers, we ask that students who are sick, feverish, coughing or sneezing do not attend class. Any students who arrive in class displaying obvious symptoms of illness will be asked to leave immediately and seek medical assistance. In serious cases this may result in being repatriated to their country at their own expense. Any missed lessons due to sickness will not be replaced.

Change of level: General English students will be tested every 4/5 weeks on the four main skills – speaking, listening, reading and writing. Tests will be given during one classroom session and results given individually to students at the end of the week. Students who meet the required pass mark will be invited to move up to the next level the following week, subject to availability. Students may need to purchase additional course books when changing level.

Expulsion: AM Language expects all students to be well-motivated, polite and considerate towards members of staff, host families and fellow students at all times. All students are bound to abide by the school policies and rules as well as the laws governing Malta. AM Language reserves the right to expel any student who does not comply with any of the above from the programme. In this case, no refund of fees will be made and any extra costs incurred by the school on the behalf of the student will be charged to the student.

Loss of Property/Insurance: AM Language will not be held responsible for loss or theft of any students' property from the school or accommodation or from any other location. Students' property is the sole responsibility of the student at all times. AM language strongly advises students to take out a travel insurance policy, which would cover them adequately throughout their stay in Malta. Contact us for Insurance related assistance.

Reduced Hours: In the event that only one student applies for a particular course, AM Language will apply reduced hours of the particular course by 1 day. Alternatively, the full number of sessions can be taken for a supplement of 1 day pro rata. As soon as additional students join the course, normal lesson times will apply.
