ABOUT US

Learning Italian is not just a matter of grammar: it also entails the use of the hands, assimilating culture, a quip while having an ice-cream, chatting to friends and others you bump into. Steeped in history, Genoa combines a unique blend of stunning landscapes, exquisite art and excellent food in a moderately sized modern city, boasting an extensive historic centre. Our aim is to turn all this into the perfect scenario for a select range of highly professional activities, where quality means attention to detail, and learning is conceived as the pleasure of viewing new horizons.

a school with a view

A stylish school in stylish premises, Amalelingue is based in via San Lorenzo, an ideal starting point to discover the city. It is located in the liveliest part of the historic centre, in a pedestrian area, within walking distance of the most interesting sites. Suffice it to raise your eyes and admire from the very window of your classroom.

ABOUT GENOVA

*I prefer Genoa to all of the cities in which I've lived.
Here I feel lost and at home, small and foreign.*
