Spanish School in Malaga: Instituto Andalusi

Instituto Andalusi opened in 2002 and offers different Spanish courses for people from all over the world. We provide the students with a wide range of courses, including more specific ones like business Spanish, courses for teenagers, as well as preparation courses for the DELE exams.

Our school is an Andalusian style villa that is located in a residential area called Pedregalejo, nearby the sea. The building has two floors, 6 classes during the low season, and up to 12 classes during high season tastefully decorated and fully equipped with free Internet access, wheel chair accessibility, a coffee machine and of course free Wi-Fi in and around the school.

Furthermore we have a comfortable garden where you can enjoy the sun with a cup of coffee while you get to know your fellow students. Because of its location and the more than 330 sunny days a year it is possible to have classes in the garden.

Why choose Instituto Andalusi de Español:

- Swiss Management
- The entire teaching staff is made up of native speakers who do have university degrees as well as an extensive teaching experience.
- The class size never exceeds 10 students.
- Activities and Excursions which focus on culture and language.
- Free Internet access as well as a Wi-Fi connection to use your own notebook.
- We speak English, Spanish, German, Italian and French.
