Corfu

The ideal language holiday destination

Corfu is a beautiful green island, which enjoys a mild Mediterranean climate. Corfu is a very popular tourist destination.

Up until the early 20th century, it was mainly visited by the European royals and elites, including Empress Elisabeth of Austria. It is still popular with the global elite however, and in the island's northeast the homeowners include members of the Rothschild family. British naturalist Gerald Durrell wrote three well-loved books about his 1935–1940 childhood on Corfu: My Family and Other Animals; Birds, Beasts and Relatives; and The Garden of the Gods.

The island's history is laden with battles and conquests. Corfu was long controlled by Venice, which repulsed several Turkish sieges, before falling under British rule following the Napoleonic Wars. Corfu was eventually ceded by the British Empire along with the remaining islands of the United States of the Ionian Islands, and unification with modern Greece was concluded in 1864 under the Treaty of London. In 2007, the city's old city was designated for the UNESCO World Heritage List.

Corfu is renowned for its long tradition and rich culture which is unlike any other Greek island.

Here you will also discover a compact world of beautiful beaches and stunning mountain peaks, ancient ruins and picturesque villages. There is something for everyone on the island, whether you prefer peace and quiet or a lively cosmopolitan holiday destination.

Language Courses

English

General English

A general English course aimed at learners who want to improve all four skills (listening, speaking, reading, and writing). Material is carefully selected to cater not only for the students' needs but also for their interests as we are aiming to make this course as enjoyable as possible. A weekly outing is also included within this programme and is part of the course.

A placement test will be given to you upon to arrival.

Minimum stay: 1 week

Classes: 10-15/week

Language Exam Preparation

An intensive exam-oriented course aimed at those who are interested in taking a language proficiency exam (Cambridge ESOL or other). The course books and handouts are provided at this longer course which will prepare students to successfully complete the examinations. Private tuition is included in the course as exam guidance. Exam fees are not included.

Minimum stay: 1 week

Classes: 10/week

Discover & Learn: Junior Vacation Course

A project-based course aimed at individuals and groups of young people between the ages of 10 and 17 which will help students practise and improve their spoken English through fun activities.

Students spend their days in small groups of 10 to 14 students, using specially-designed material and worksheets in but also out of class to find out more about the places they visit. Each day is devoted to the study of one topic or place to be visited. Two outings per week are included within the programme and are part of the course.

This course is ideal for young learners who do not want yet another classroom-based course, and who enjoy project work and collaborative learning. It is also aimed at families who spend their holidays on the island and would like their children to do something creative and fun in the morning.

Minimum stay: 1 week

Classes: 15-20/week

Cultural

Courses

Greek

Speak Greek in a Week

This is a short yet intensive introductory course in Modern Greek. Let us help you gain insight into one of the world's oldest languages. Although attention is paid in conversational language, students will familiarize themselves with the written form of the language and will be able to read short texts by the end of the course.

Minimum stay: 1 week
Classes: 20/week

General Greek

Study Modern Greek at any level from beginners to advanced. Our highly experienced teachers will guide you through this exploration of one of the most complex languages. Courses are conducted in small groups or one-to one.

Minimum stay: 1 week
Classes: 10/week

One-to-One

At Andrioti School we offer you the option of private tuition either as a course on its own or alongside your chosen course. Private classes are for those who wish to focus on their specific individual needs and wish to be more flexible time-wise.

A placement test will be given upon arrival, and our academic coordinators will design the most suitable course for you. Let us help you tailor-make it as far as time, intensity and level is concerned.

Club Greece

This cultural programme is carried out in English and aims at giving attendees an insight into Greek history, culture and language. It is aimed at people who are looking into combining their holidays in Greece with some seminars on interesting topics such as Ancient Greek Mythology and Art and would like to learn some day-to-day Greek.

The course includes 2 outings per week which link in perfectly with the topics discussed in the morning seminars.

Minimum stay: 1 week
Classes: 15/week

Literature: From Homer to Durrell

Corfu has been the inspiration for many great authors and poets through history. In this course you will acquaint yourself with literature and poetry that refers to Corfu. Homer, Shakespeare, and Gerald Durrell's work will be discussed in an interesting course conducted in English.

The course includes one outing per week which links in perfectly with the topics discussed in the morning seminars.

Minimum stay: 1 week
Classes: 15/week

Readings in Greek Literature & Poetry

This course aims at giving attendees an insight into the wealth of Greek literature and poetry. Kazantzakis, Elytis (1979 Nobel Prize in Literature), Ritsos, Kavafis and Seferis (1963 Nobel Prize in Literature) are only a few of the great literary figures of Modern Greek literature, whose work will be studied. Their works have been translated into a number of languages.

The course includes one outing per week which links in perfectly with the topics discussed in the seminars.

Minimum stay: 1 week
Classes: 15/week
