*a ceilidh is a traditional Scottish dance. A ceilidh band usually comprising a violinist, an accordion player and a guitarist play Scottish music. One of the members of the ceilidh band will also instruct participants of the steps to take and when (this person is called a 'caller'). Ceilidhs are popular at Scottish celebrations like weddings and parties and at Hogmanay (New Year). Ceilidhs are always a lot of fun and the dance steps are easier to pick up for beginners.
