

THE HEART OF MEXICO

Mexico City is not only the biggest city in the world, Mexico City was the base of the Aztec civilization centuries ago. If you are interested in having activities all day, you will probably go to the right place by visiting Mexico City, imagine all the things you can do in the biggest city in the whole world, and also one of the most beautiful cities: museums, nightlife, culture, entertainment and of course, Spanish!

HISTORY:

Not far from the main city, you can find the pyramids of the sun and the moon in Teotihuacan (45 minutes driving from downtown). The pyramid at Cuicuilco in the south of the city is a curious circular construction half hidden by the lava the Xitle volcano spewed forth more than three thousand years ago. All the history of our beautiful city can be experienced at the Museum of Anthropology, near the city center.

SIGHTSEEING

The main attractions offered by Mexico City (besides the pyramids), are the Palace of Bellas Artes, a beautiful white marble palace located in the center of the city; the Plaza de las Tres Culturas, which shows three very important facets of Mexican architecture: the pre Hispanic, the colonial and the modern; the Castillo de Chapultepec, an old castle that was home to Austrian dynasties; and the Mexico City cathedral and Villa of Guadalupe, demonstrations of our colonial heritage.

TRANSPORTATION:

Mexico City offers excellent transportation opportunities for students, which include a subway and the new metrobus system which connects about 80% of the city. The school is located in front of a metrobus station so students won't have any problem when moving around.

ENTERTAINMENT

Mexico City's nightlife is one of the best in the world: bars, discos, mariachis! The options of bars and activities are endless in Condesa and Insurgentes districts, besides that, Mexican people is known to be among the kindest in the world. Why not try shopping also, the variety of options is endless in downtown and Mazarik Street. For music and theater lovers, options are endless: Centro Cultural Telmex offers famous Broadway plays, while Auditorio Nacional offers the best concerts in the City.

ABOUT THE SCHOOL

BLUE COTTON SCHOOLS MEXICO CITY

The school is located in Insurgentes Sur 307, Colonia Condesa, where most of the international student life takes place in Mexico City. Colonia Condesa is a bohemian area famous for its restaurants and bars, in fact, most foreigners who decide to live in Mexico City take residence in Colonia Condesa, mostly, because its considered as one of the safest residential areas in Mexico.

Our School is easily accessed by public transport, since its located near the metro line and just in front of one of the metrobus lines, and just 3 blocks away from Condesas restaurant area. Nearby attractions include the Castle of Chapultepec, the Museum of Anthropology, Mexico City Downtown and some famous restaurants and bars.

The building is a typical colonial building where the school offices and classes are held. The school has a main office with the following characteristics: secretary, directors offices, studying room, computer room, and two small classrooms for private and intensive courses. One floor above the offices, students will find 3 classrooms and a coffee area, these classrooms have each capacity for up to 16 students, also, they will find a kitchen where small group cuisine courses are held.
