CANNES

Cannes is a popular destination famed for its luxury hotels, film festival, and sandy public beaches. In addition to the inherent glamour of Cannes, it remains a traditional Mediterranean town where young students can explore easily and safely. Students will quickly find their bearings in this lively town.

FRENCH COURSE

How to promote language learning for children

STANDARD COURSE

Our qualified professors offer an approach to teaching which develops acquisition of the French language through dynamic learning activities. Teachers apply an active learning approach that encourages acquisition of grammatical rules while prioritizing the development of teen's oral communication in French through stimulating pedagogic activities. Students will also develop the fundamentals of practical communicative functions of comprehension and writing.

INTENSIVE COURSE

Students oral command of French is the focus of our afternoon intensive classes. Our mini group- group class composition is an ideal setting to work on conversational French skills through role-playing simulations and situational games. The educational activities will allow students to develop their grammatical skills covered in morning lessons, their oral comprehension, and debating skills in French.
