

Student Life

After classes are over for the day, our program allows plenty of time to discover Morocco and its culture. Our optional cultural and social activities allow you to make new friends, experience the local life, practice your Arabic outside the classroom, and immerse yourself in the culture. Many of these activities are free.

Cultural Activities

Conferences

Dar Loughat organizes and holds several conferences and lectures on a variety of topics and issues. They are generally delivered in English, Spanish, French or Arabic. Previous conferences were on Moroccan history and its cultural heritage, the cultural diversity of Tetouan, Women in Islam, Arabic calligraphy, Andalusian Music, Tetouani Cuisine, the Moroccan political scene, etc.

Guided visits

The school organizes several guided tours and visits to the traditional city of Tetouan and its numerous museums and social associations.

Food

From time to time, Dar Loughat organizes informal outings for the students to eat together in popular local restaurants or to take refreshments in the Medina. Besides, international potlucks are sometimes organized by the students themselves, and allow them to experience other cultures and eat delicious food from other places.
