¿Why choose Málaga?

The city of Málaga has a special charm – it's not called the "city of paradise" for no reason. Málaga is a melting point of cultures, and boasts top-rate weather, welcoming inhabitants and a rich variety of food.

MÁLAGA

Beaches Altogether, the city has 16 beaches stretching over 14 kilometres. You can get to all of them easily and find countless beach bars and restaurants there.

Good weather Málaga has some of the best weather of all European cities, with more than 300 sunny days each year. The average annual temperature is 23˚C.

International airport with multiple connections Málaga's airport is one of the most important in Spain and it is only 20 minutes from the centre of Málaga.

Historical sites and museums Málaga is the birth place of the famous painter Pablo Picasso and there are many museums devoted to him in the city. In Málaga you can find several museums to suit every taste, from the Carmen Thyssen Museum to the Pompidou Centre to the Russian Museum as well as Arabic monuments.

Gastronomy Mediterranean gastronomy is known all around the world for being both healthy and delicious. As well as the famous paella, tortilla or gazpacho, there are many more dishes to try. You can't visit Málaga without trying some tapas, espetos (sardines) or fried fish.

Lots of cultural or leisure activities to choose from Málaga offers a multitude of activities for all tastes. As well as sporting, cultural or leisure activities, there are year-round parties and events. For nature-lovers, there are many walking trails in the region and countless options for extreme sports fans.

Welcomed with open arms The people of Málaga will make you feel at home right from your first day with their kindness and happiness, which is essential for a linguistic immersion. Hans Christian Anderson wrote about the city of Málaga that "I haven't felt so happy and comfortable in any other Spanish city than in Málaga."
