Teaching methodology

At English Path we use the communicative approach which means:

- A focus on speaking
- Interactive lessons
- Noticing students' gaps and reacting to them
- Going beyond the textbook
- English for real life outside the classroom
- Understanding each student's individual needs

All EP teachers are trained in this approach from their first day, so students have the same experience in all levels at all EP locations.

School material

Accommodation

Accommodation is a vital part of your experience in a new country. Your new home is an important part of your study experience. Each school has specially chosen options to help make the most out of your stay. Student residences offer different accommodation experiences, but always meet the highest standards.

All accommodation options are based on availability. Please make sure you check with your representative if we have availability

What accommodation option should I choose?

The choice of accommodation depends on your preferences, needs, and budget. Below are some important factors you need to consider.

|  | Student Residence   | Shared Apartments  | Studio   |
|--|---|--|--|
|  | Convenient location, typically close to campus.Easy access to good facilities and nearby amenities.24h reception. | Meet other students from all over the world.Easier to socialise.Can be more affordable.              | Will have more privacy.No need to share your kitchen or bathroom with others.Conveniently located near campus. |
|  | Noise levels might be high.Might be sharing facilities with other students.Might be expensive.                    | May have to deal with shared chores and responsibilities.You might not be able to choose your flatmates. | Might be expensive.Less engagements and social interactions with others.   |

Booking Student Accommodation in 3 simple steps

Step 1

You can indicate your preferred type of accommodation (homestay, shared apartment or residence) on the application form during your application for a course. Our Student Services team will record the preferred choice of accommodation.

Step 2

EP will be able to secure the accommodation option once the invoice has been paid. Our team will send you the accommodation confirmation with further details on the selected option.

Step 3

You will need to confirm your arrival and send your flight details to our team, as soon as the flight is booked and no later than one week before the flight date. Our team will be able to book and confirm your accommodation and/or transfers and provide more details within the confirmation document.

Before you leave your country

Here are some important things you need to know to make your arrival as smooth as possible. Use our checklist to ensure you don't forget anything and are prepared for the exciting times ahead.

Pocket money

Recommend weekly budget: $200. This should cover expenses, laundry, local travel and activities. You will need additional money if you want to take weekend trips. Bring $70 with you in cash and a debit or credit card. You will need to check with your financial institution to make sure you will be able to withdraw money from a Dubai ATM. Do not bring foreign currency. It is not wise to carry around large amounts of cash.

Clothing

Most students dress casually for classes, but you should be covered when visiting government places, nice clothes for going out and sportswear for sports and outdoor activities. The climate is mostly sunny. The typical temperature is 35-43°C in the summer and 17-30°C in the winter, although it can drop below freezing. Bring waterproof clothing if you're arriving in the autumn or winter.

Electrical current

Standard voltage in The UAE is 230 volts; remember to bring an adaptor with you or buy one when you arrive.

School notifications

We encourage you to join the social programme WhatsApp group when you arrive and stay active in the group during your stay. This will give you an idea of what is happening at the school and help you connect with staff and students. This is also where we will post notification of any unexpected holidays. It is important you check our social program WhatsApp group for any messages while you are attending the school. If we have some important information to share with you, we will post a message as soon as possible.

When you arrive in Dubai

Arriving at the airport in a foreign country can be overwhelming. To better prepare yourself, make sure that you have read the information below about your arrival and how to get to your accommodation. If you get lost or confused upon arrival, don't be afraid to ask the airport staff for help as they will be happy to give assistance.

EP transfers

Students should arrive at DXB Dubai International Airport. We request that you book your flights according to the starting date of your specific program. You must arrive on the Saturday or Sunday prior to your course start date. If you have booked a transfer service, a driver will meet you outside the customs area and drive you to your homestay or residence. Please ensure you arrange and pay the transfer fee in advance.

Transfer service emergency contact details

If you have any flight changes, miss a connecting flight or need help meeting the transfer service, you should call one of the following emergency numbers. Please be prepared to tell them your name, school name (English Path) and location. Students should only accept a transfer from a greeter with the official English Path signage.

Transfer service emergency numbers: +971 58 257 8026

Independent transfers

Local customs

- Dubai follows Islamic customs and traditions, so visitors are expected to be respectful of Islamic practices, Dubai is relatively liberal in terms of dress code, it is recommended to dress modestly in public places, especially when visiting religious sites or government offices.
- When greeting someone, a simple handshake is common among men, while men and women may exchange nods or place their hand on their chest. Physical contact between men and women who are not close relatives is generally avoided in public.
- Public displays of affection, drinking alcohol in non-designated areas, and using offensive language are considered disrespectful and may be subject to legal consequences.
- The culture in Dubai places a high value on respecting authority, including government officials, police, and elders.
- While Dubai is a modern city with stunning architecture, it is essential to be mindful of local customs when taking photographs. Avoid taking pictures of people without their permission, especially women, and respect any "no photography" signs.
- It's important to note that Dubai is a multicultural city with a diverse population, and while these customs are generally observed, there may be variations based on individuals' backgrounds and beliefs. Respecting and understanding local customs is key to having a positive and enriching experience in Dubai.

Health and safety

- Medical insurance: All students must have medical insurance for the duration of their stay in Dubai. Students who come with a student visa have medical insurance included.
- If you get sick: If you get sick while in Dubai you should visit a doctor. You can ask the Student Services team where the nearest doctor is.
- Protecting your belongings: English Path and student residences have strong emphasis on maintaining a safe and secure environment. However, like any other city, it's important to exercise common sense and follow basic safety guidelines to ensure a smooth and secure experience. We recommend taking care of your belongings. Personal items cannot be covered by English Path or residence.

- Prescription medication: Some medications that are commonly available over-the-counter in other countries may be considered controlled substances in Dubai. Before traveling, check the UAE's list of restricted medications to ensure that your medication is allowed into the country. If you are bringing prescription medication into Dubai, you should carry a copy of your doctor's prescription with you. The prescription should have all relevant information, including your name, the name of the medication, the dosage, and the prescribing doctor's information.
- Staying safe at school: If you or another student has an accident or needs urgent medical attention, please call 999. Come to the office or call the emergency phone, and we can help you.
- Fire safety: If you discover a fire, press the fire alarm button on the nearest alarm. Leave the building immediately via the fire exit. Make sure you tell a member of EP staff exactly what happened so they can call 999. If you hear the fire alarm, leave the building immediately. Do not run, use the emergency exit. EP staff will guide you to the fire exit. Go to the assembly point. Follow any instructions given by a member of EP staff and do not go back into the building until you are told to do so by EP staff.
- Personal safety and looking after valuables: Dubai is a remarkably safe destination for residents and tourists alike. The city boasts low crime rates and strict law enforcement, contributing to its reputation as a secure and welcoming place. Visitors can feel confident exploring the city and enjoying its attractions without major concerns about personal safety. However, like any other place, it's essential to exercise normal precautions such as keeping belongings secure and being aware of your surroundings.

Emergency services

- Call 999 in case of fire, a medical emergency or if you need the police.

Medical costs

Medical costs are at the discretion of your local doctor or hospital. Minimum medical costs are as follows:

- Consultation with a doctor: $125
- Prescriptions at a chemist: $25 per item
- Dental treatment: $150-$200
- Eye test or new glasses: $60-100

Laws

- Respect for Islamic customs: Dubai is a Muslim city, so it's essential to show respect for local customs and traditions. Dress modestly in public places, especially in religious sites, and avoid public displays of affection.
- Alcohol consumption: Drinking alcohol is allowed in licensed venues such as hotels, bars, and restaurants. However, public intoxication and drinking alcohol in non-designated areas are strictly prohibited.
- Drugs and medications: Possession, use, and trafficking of illegal drugs are severe offenses in Dubai, carrying heavy penalties, including imprisonment and even the death penalty. Additionally, some prescribed medications in other countries may be considered controlled substances in Dubai, so check with the UAE embassy for the latest regulations before bringing any medications.
- Photography restrictions: Avoid taking photos of government buildings, military installations, and certain public areas like airports, as this could be perceived as a breach of security and lead to legal issues.
- Public behavior: Dubai is a safe city, but any disruptive or offensive behavior in public places can lead to fines or even imprisonment. Maintain a respectful and courteous demeanor while in public.
- Respect during Ramadan: During the holy month of Ramadan, Muslims fast from sunrise to sunset. It's essential to be considerate and avoid eating, drinking, or smoking in public during this time.
- Homosexuality and LGBT rights: Homosexuality is considered illegal in Dubai, and public displays of affection between same-sex couples are strictly prohibited.

Student code of conduct

- You must attend all classes. If you do not attend your classes your representative will be informed. If you do not improve your attendance and do not inform us why you are absent, your VISA may be cancelled and you will have to return home. 85% attendance is needed to be able to receive a certificate of completion.
- Be on time for all your lessons.
- Always tell English Path if you are going to be absent from school for any reason and tell your if you are going away overnight.
- If you commit a criminal offence or have to be severely disciplined you will be sent home. We will also inform the immigration authorities.
- Be respectful, polite and open to different cultures.
