Accommodation

Shared Apartments (minimum age 18)

Students live in modern, well-equipped apartments, sharing with other participants or trainees from FU International Academy, Tenerife. Here are some details about our shared apartments:

- Bed linen is provided but the students must bring their own towels.
- Each tenant has his/her own furnished room, while the bathroom and kitchen are shared.
- Equipment: WIFI, TV, an iron, and a washing machine. There is also a fully equipped kitchen.
- Cleaning: The students are responsible for cleaning their bedroom for the entire length of their stay. FU International Academy is only responsible for cleaning after the students check out. Common areas will be cleaned once a week by our staff.

Host Families (minimum age 16)

The quality of the accommodation plays an important part in the student's satisfaction with their stay. Each student's request is handled with the greatest of care by our qualified housing officer. We regularly visit families and try to match the student's profile to the family.

- Breakfast or half board
- All the families are located in the town as the schools. (maximum 10 minutes by bus)
- Bed linen and towels are provided.
- The use of the washing machine and the kitchen depends on each family.
- Not two students speaking the same native language will be placed in each host family.
- Vegetarian food is available on request.
