DESCRIPTION

The Social Volunteer Internship Program is an innovative model of enriched education combining English language studies with volunteer experience in the Indian community. Students are placed in a social Volunteer Internship helping disadvantaged Indians in New Delhi, or in small countryside villages.

FULL-TIME INTENSIVE STUDY

Take a minimum of 4 weeks Full-Time Intensive study, and improve your language skills in preparation for your success in your Internship. Choose courses like:

- English Communication
- Business English
- Test Preparation (IELTS, TOEFL or TOEIC)
- Basic Hindi

Foundation courses may apply depending on your background and experience.

VOLUNTEER INTERNSHIP

- Volunteer to work with disadvantaged children, women, the disabled or handicapped, or the elderly
- Students can also participate in village infrastructure projects
- Experience village life and gain exposure to international development
- Students must be prepared to live and work outside of Delhi, in Himachel, Pradesh, Rajasthan or Goa
- Minimum 4 weeks of unpaid internship

REGISTRATION

STEP ONE

Take the Pre-Registration Online Language Assessment (PROLA) and do a phone interview. (Students registered in 24-week and longer Full-Time Intensive study may be exempt from the PROLA and the phone interview)

STEP TWO

Complete the ILSC application form, and the Volunteer Internship Program application form and send the program fees to the school.

STEP THREE

Submit both application forms, a curriculum vitae (CV) and a cover letter. The CV should be neat and professional and include all relevant educational and work experience. The cover letter should state your skills and placement goals.
