Porto: City of World Heritage

inlingua Porto

Specialists in Portuguese teaching since 1978, inlingua Porto is situated in the historical centre of the city. With lots of parking space and also excellent public-transport connections inlingua is easy to reach. The newly renovated premises are air-conditioned throughout and include a bar area for students and staff to relax between lessons. The professional, good humoured and informal atmosphere will help you feel at home and allow you to concentrate 100% on your studies.

Arriving in Porto

The ultra-modern international airport has daily flights to a host of destinations worldwide and also hourly flights to Lisbon. The newly-installed metro system (with a stop just outside the school) makes it a pleasure to get about town.

Break time at inlingua

Portuguese Online

The inlingua on-line programme is the ideal way to supplement and practice your Portuguese both while you are here in Porto and also while you are back at home. All you need is internet access.

- 100s of hours of self access interactive training and practice activities per level including listening, writing, speaking, reading and grammar activities.
- Weekly or monthly modules sent by your e-trainer, who will assess your progress throughout the course.

The flexible programme ensures that the system can be adapted to fit in with your Portuguese studies at home.

What they say about the Portuguese courses at inlingua Porto

"There is something special about inlingua that I recognised without any knowledge of language schools. Having picked up more recent experiences of other language schools I now can appreciate the size of the gulf dividing inlingua from the rest."

Simon Davies, President of Volvo Serviços Financeiros and Banco Volvo (Brasil)

"A very professional outfit which has a strong personal identity."

Fiona Paterson, Diplomat, Portugal

"Excellent school environment and overall organisation. A great experience."

Steve O´Reardon, Managing Director Ranger Oil, Angola

"I started with no Portuguese, and come away after three weeks feeling as confident as I could have hoped for."

Nick Highton, Economist, Mozambique

"This is an excellent course and compares very favourably with other language courses I have done in the past."

Sean Holt, Diplomat, Angola

How to reach us

Hard at work

Personalised attention

"I will recommend inlingua to colleagues and friends for its excellent organization, professionalism and quality of teaching. Also for the personality and communication skills of the teachers and for the friendliness of its staff in general."

Triantafyllos Karmaniolas, Lawyer

"I am very pleased at the quality of the course, the one-on-one treatment and the progress I made. Congratulations!"

Peter Bennett, New Zealand Ambassador to Portugal

"Each teacher was thoroughly professional with different approaches to keep the student interested. My expectations were surpassed."

Stuart Wesson, Accountant

I am happy. After a one month intensive course I am able to understand and communicate without difficulty in Portuguese.

Luis Mauricio Guevara, Missionary

"The whole course was very well made. I am very happy!"

Levels/exams/diplomas

There are 5 levels from complete beginner to advanced. You will receive a certificate at the end of your course and a diploma at the end of each level. We also offer preparation for the official state Portuguese exams (CIPLE, DEPLE, DIPLE, DAPLE, DUPLE).

Accommodation

Let us take care of your accommodation needs while you are in Porto. We can recommend you great places to stay and, due to the number of students we receive each year, we are usually able to arrange good discounts. Alternatively you can stay with one of our carefully selected host families who will provide you with a single private room, half board (full board at the weekend) and the warmest of welcomes. Highly recommended.
