Explorer

A real London learning experience through daily excursions and project-based lessons

📍 Explorer 📍 IH London 📊 A1+-C1 👤 12-17 📅 1-4 weeks 📅 6, 13, 20, 27 July 🛒 £799/week

Explorer is a summer day programme for students aged 12–17 with English levels from A1+ to C1, delivered at IH London in the heart of the city. The course combines morning excursions across London, lunch at school, and afternoon project-based lessons that develop communication, confidence, and teamwork. Students explore real London locations each day, applying their English in practical situations while gaining independence and building new friendships.

Accredited by the BRITISH COUNCIL for the teaching of English in the UK

Morning Excursions, Real London Learning

Students explore London each morning through half-day excursions, discovering the city with the support of Activity Leaders. These real-life experiences build the foundation for their afternoon project-based lessons.

Learning Through Experience

Afternoon lessons are project-based, focusing on teamwork, presentations, and interactive tasks. Students apply what they have seen in the morning, developing communication, confidence, and practical English skills.

Explore London, Build Global Friendships

Students make friends from around the world while navigating London together. With supervision from 9am–5pm, pastoral check-ins, and SEN-aware staff, they build independence in a safe and supportive environment.

Global friendships in a safe and caring environment

Safety & Welfare

- Daily pastoral check-ins and supportive teachers
- Supervision from 9am–5pm across excursions, lessons and lunch
- Group Leaders support students throughout the day
- SEN-aware staff, with welfare officers available when needed
