SCHOOL REGULATIONS

- 1) The enrolment of students under 16 years of age are accepted by the institute only if they are accompanied by one or both parents or guardians.*
- 2) The school is closed on national public holidays. For those days there is no refund.*
- 3) One-to-one lessons which cannot be held on national public holidays will be rescheduled on a different day.*
- 4) In the event that the school is not able to offer the intensive course in the afternoons due to a lack of adequate levels, the 2 hours group lesson will be converted into 1 hour one-to-one lesson.*
- 5) Students who cancel before the completion of the course do not have any right to refund. The students may receive a voucher in the case that they have a valid reason to cancel the course. In this case, all the missed hours can be caught up within a year of the course interruption.*
- 6) In case of a technical or organizational problem, the management reserves the right to arrange lessons in the afternoon. The students will be informed on their first day at the Istituto Il David.*

CANCELLATION

In order to claim back full repayment, the student is required to send a written cancellation to the Institute at least 20 days before the beginning of the course by post, by fax or by e-mail. Beyond this date no refund will be made.

However, payments can be used as vouchers for other courses that the student may attend within one year after the annulment.

The Institute reserves the right to itself to fix the amount and to deduct the cost for the remittance of the payment and repayment of the amount.
