

BUSINESS ENGLISH COURSES

Bilingual professionals are in high demand. Whether you’re promoting a product, conducting international market research or liaising with partners around the world, your language skills could be invaluable to employers. Make the most of these opportunities with a Business English course. Specialized writing exercises and in-class roleplays help you navigate the international workplace – from job applications and interviews to meetings, presentations and conference calls.

Choose the balance that suits you. You can devote the majority of your study time to building fluency and confidence with General English, while supplementary Business English classes prepare you to use your skills in a professional setting. Or prioritize career-focused English with a Business Intensive course.
