IELTS is arguably the world's most recognised English exam, testing proficiency across all levels. It is run by Cambridge ESOL, IDP Education Australia and the British Council and obtaining a high score in IELTS gives students access to a range of new education, immigration and employment opportunities around the world.

The exam comprises Listening, Reading, Writing and Speaking sections and is available in two forms, General and Academic.

Academic IELTS

The Academic paper is for those who want to attend university in an English-speaking country and is a requirement for certain professions - such as medical workers - who wish to work in an English-speaking country.

General IELTS

The General paper is not taken as often as the Academic, and is usually prepared for by those who want to gain an English qualification for general work experience or wish to migrate to an English-speaking country.

The Essentials

Dates and Times

IELTS preparation runs on continuous enrolment with intakes every Monday, so a student can start and finish at any time of the year. However, we strongly recommend that every student seeks advice from our IELTS teachers and Academic management staff to decide how long they should study before taking the exam.

Morning lessons are available weekdays, 9am-12.15pm (9am-10.30am, then 11.00am-12.15pm). Afternoon Lessons are available weekdays, 1.00pm-3.00pm, Evening lessons are available Monday and Wednesday, 6pm-9pm (6pm-7.25pm, then 7.35pm-9pm).

Materials

Students do not need to buy a particular coursebook. Resources are compiled from different sources, including official mock exams, a variety of online resources and several popular course books such as 'Ready For IELTS' and 'New Insight Into IELTS'.

The Exam

Before taking the real IELTS exam, we strongly recommend taking a full Mock exam. This is a free service provided by us, which gives the student valuable insight into the full process and experience of sitting a pressurised exam.

The IELTS exam will then take place in an IELTS centre of the student's choosing. We can help with the booking and organising of the exam.
