“Our mission is to offer the best Korean study experience possible, and to share with you All the fun of Seoul”

- JeeHo Kim, Managing Director
The City

Seoul and its surrounding districts make up one of the world’s largest metropolitan areas, with over 25 million people. With a population density almost double that of New York, Seoul is a vibrant hive of activity, offering endless opportunities for discovery and fun.

Even with such a huge population, Seoul is a genuinely beautiful city, surrounded by snow-capped mountains and the sea, and nestled on the banks of the Han River. Although you may be tempted never to leave Gangnam, it is possible to travel outside the hustle and bustle in just minutes.

Seoul is a city built for freezing winters and steamy summers; huddle around a table-top BBQ in the cooler months or kick back in an office-roof beer garden in the long summer nights. Whatever the time of year, an almost endless selection of entertainment options awaits you.

A ‘city of villages’, it sometimes seems that every subway stop offers a whole new character to the city; experience the fashion madness of Gangnam, the alternative music scene in Hongdae, the packed shopping streets of Myeongdong and the soaring office towers of the Jongro district. One of Asia’s leading cultural centres, Seoul has five ancient palaces and five UNESCO World Heritage. You can lose yourself in over seven hundred museums, and hundreds of performance centers and galleries. Bargain hard at cheap-and-cheerful markets or treat yourself at some of the world’s leading fashion boutiques. Party the night away in a dizzying array of nightclubs, or kick back with your Korean friends for a night of bulgogi and beers.

Whatever your interests, and whether you are there for a weekend or for years, Seoul has something for everyone. We can’t wait to share our city with you!
