

AFTERNOON ACTIVITIES

Afternoon activities at L'Italiano Porticando are arranged weekly according to the number of participants and their particular interests, weather conditions and upcoming events in Turin.

Our free outings and guided excursions are held twice a week, on Tuesday and Thursday, while such paid activities as wine and local products tastings, aperitifs, lunches and dinners, guided excursions outside Turin are organized throughout the month.

As a rule, the outings include walking tours around the city, visits to museums, royal palaces and important historical and artistic monuments.

An example:

1st week:

- a welcome tour
- an aperitif
- a guided visit to one of the Royal palaces Of Savoy

2nd week:

- a walking tour in the park
- a visit to one of the museums of Turin
- a tasting (wine, local products, chocolate, gelato)
- an excursion outside Turin on Saturday or Sunday

3rd week

- a walking tour in the historic city centre
- a gastronomic activity (e.g., a cooking class)
- a walking tour to discover modern Turin

4th week

- a walking tour dedicated to a specific topic (Turin during the Roman Epoch, the Baroque Turin, Turin and the unification of Italy, Liberty).
- a walking tour in the surroundings of Turin
- a farewell lunch
