6. Under 18 year olds (19 in Vancouver)

LSI delivers adult courses (except for programmes advertised as being for Juniors). Therefore, no student under the age of 17 will be attending classes and sharing facilities with students aged 18 and over. Under 18 year olds may be required to pay a guardian fee, provide custody documentation, live in shared accommodation, book LSI’s airport transfer service and purchase insurance. All students under 18 (19 in Vancouver) must provide a signed Parental Consent form prior to or at arrival, and will be subject to the Delegation and Declaration waiver form.

New Zealand: Students under the age of 18 must in family accommodation must book half-board and a return airport transfer. Unless otherwise requested by a parent or guardian, students under the age of 18 and their accommodation will be expected to return to their accommodation by no later than 22:00 hours each evening.

7. Health declaration

Students must report on their enrolment form any mental or physical, illness, allergy, disability or condition and details of any associated medicines that may interfere with their ability to successfully complete their programme, that may impact the health and well-being of any other student, host or staff member, that may require monitoring, treatment or emergency intervention of any kind during their student’s anticipated period of enrolment, or that may require special accommodation for such treatment. The school has the right to reject an applicant or terminate a student’s enrolment in the programme if the student’s continued participation represents a risk to their health and safety or the health and safety of other students or staff, or if, in the school’s opinion, reasonable accommodations cannot be made.

In order to register, all students must have had the required immunizations according to current guidelines of local medical authorities where LSI schools operate. If it is the student’s responsibility to ensure that all required immunizations before departure and they may be required to provide evidence upon arrival. More information about immunizations currently required can be found on the local school’s website.

8. Additional services

Any additional services (transfers, travel, laundry, telephone costs, excursions, medical advice, visa application fees, change of accommodation and enrolment amendments) are not included in any fees unless specifically stated on a valid invoice.

9. Twin and roommate allocation

At LSI’s discretion, students may be required to book single room accommodation instead of twin room accommodation.

10. Travel and medical insurance

Travel and medical insurance is strongly recommended at all LSI schools for the duration of your stay, regardless of your course length or course visa type. For some programme or visa types, insurance is compulsory (please check with the school for further details). It is your responsibility to ensure that you have the appropriate cover before departure and for the duration of your stay. Students may be required to show proof of medical insurance at the school upon arrival and may not be allowed to commence a course unless satisfactory medical insurance has been obtained. Travel and medical insurance can be purchased from a third party through LSI where available. Details of what this cover is available from your LSI representative. You are responsible for the bookings which you bring with you to your LSI schools or accommodation and for taking out insurance to cover you.

Australia: The Australian government requires all students on Student Visas to join the Overseas Student Health Cover (OSHC) scheme, a health insurance plan for overseas students in Australia. Payment of the compulsory OSHC must cover the duration of the student’s visa and be made before a visa can be issued.

New Zealand: New Zealand students are not entitled to publicly funded health services while in New Zealand. If you receive medical treatment during your visit, you may be liable for the full costs of that treatment. Full details on entitlements to publicly funded health services are available through the Ministry of Health and can be viewed on their website at: www.health.govt.nz. The Accident Compensation Corporation provides accident insurance for all New Zealand citizens, residents and temporary visitors to New Zealand, but you may still be liable for all other medical and related costs, or services. Further information can be viewed on the ACC website at: www.acc.govt.nz.

Switzerland: We recommend students stay for up to 90 days apply for a full medical and travel insurance before leaving their home country. Once you arrive in Switzerland, we provide assistance with obtaining insurance for those with existing policies or to those wishing to apply for Swiss medical insurance for periods of study extending beyond this initial 90 days.

11. Postponement

In the event of a course postponement, you may be re-booked at the rates currently in effect at the time of re-booking.

12. Special Offers

Special Offers are non-refundable and paid for prior to the stated expiration date. The relevant special offer code must be provided at the time of booking. Please note, book early to secure your special offer. Only existing enrolments cannot be cancelled and rebooked at the promotion price. Only one special offer is valid per enrolment. Special offers can be combined. All special offers are subject to availability and are subject to change.

GENERAL

1. Rules and regulations

Students’ arrangements with LSI are governed by the law of the country where the particular school attended is located.

2. Programme changes

LSI reserves the right to change course dates, course curricula, course schedules, tutors, locations and programmes at any time at its discretion. Changes when the course is rescheduled prior to the start of the first course and the new date is unacceptable to the student, all fees will be refunded. However fees will not be refunded for changes in visa implications.

3. Arrivals and departures

Depending on the school, accommodation is booked from either Saturday to Sunday before the course start date (excluding the Saturday or Sunday after the course end date). Please check with the individual school for details. A partial week may be counted as 1 week’s accommodation. Students arriving between 22:00 – 6:00 may be asked to book alternative accommodation in a hotel on their first night due to late arrival at accommodation, or be charged an extra night of accommodation. Certain residences may also have set arrival times. Please check with the school for further details.

4. Residential housing

A refundable deposit may be charged on arrival on students taking residential accommodation. The deposit is not returned unless there are serious overs or extra cost being charged to the student’s departure. In some cases the deposit may be non-refundable if the booking is cancelled. Please refer to our various accommodation brochures for further details.

5. Late arrivals, vacations and absences

If you begin your enrolment late or are absent during your course, no refund will be made for the missed time. Periods of absence cannot be made up as extra sessions at the end of the course. If the school has been received, you will not be allowed to start your course.

6. Public holidays

Classes currently not held and most school facilities are closed on public holidays. All published course start dates fall on a Monday. If the Monday is a public holiday, the start date will fall on a Tuesday. Compensation will not be made for classes not offered on public holidays.

7. Meals and classes missed

No refunds or substitutions will be made for meals or classes missed due to lateness, illness, exceptions, international holidays or other obligations that fail outside the normal schedule.

8. Books and learning materials

All books and learning materials will be made available to students during their course.

In New Zealand, Australia, Canada, France & Switzerland a materials fee is included in each student’s programme fee. This covers local medical authorities where LSI schools operate. The Accidental Compensation Corporation provides accident insurance for all New Zealand citizens, residents and temporary visitors to New Zealand, but you may still be liable for all other medical and related costs, or services. Further information can be viewed on the ACC website at: www.acc.govt.nz.

12. Expulsion/Suspension
Any student who commits a criminal offense, violates the LSI Code of Conduct or engages in a behavior which, in the opinion of LSI, will impair his or her ability to benefit from the program, or which is deemed inappropriate by LSI, must immediately leave the campus. Where such conduct is a matter of a legal case, the student will be suspended until the matter is resolved. LSI reserves the right to withhold the granting of a certificate to any student during the time such a student is under any legal proceeding. LSI reserves the right to withhold the granting of a certificate to any student who does not meet the required standards during the program. LSI reserves the right to take all appropriate action which it deems necessary to protect its students, programs, facilities or the rights of any other person.

13. Liability
The liability of LSI, its group companies, its directors, officers, employees, affiliates, agents and partners with respect to losses or damages for which liability cannot be excluded as a matter of law, breach of contract or otherwise, will be limited, in all circumstances to the full amount paid to LSI or the relevant LSI group company by the relevant student for the particular program. Such companies and persons will in no circumstances have any liability for indirect or consequential losses or damages.

14. Force majeure
LSI will not be liable in cases where LSI is unable to fulfill any services to which they are contractually bound because of fire, natural disaster, act of government, failure of supply or subcontractor, labour disputes or other reasons which are beyond LSI's control.

15. Codes of practice
All LSI staff are subject to the Code of Practice for the Pastoral Care of International Students as administered by various local accrediting agencies. UK: British Council; LSI Private Further Education, USA: ACCET, Canada; Languages Canada, Australia: the Australian National Code of Practice 2007 and the Educational Services for Overseas Students Act 2000, Canada, New Zealand: the Education Act. Further information is available on the school's website.

16. LSI Student Code of Conduct
Students must agree to abide by the LSI Student Code of Conduct and other clauses in this section. Inappropriate conduct includes but is not limited to: (1) disruptions to the learning environment including the classroom and online, e.g. use of profanity, harassment, mobile phone use in class with audible ring tones, (2) misuse or theft of LSI property or the property of fellow classmates; (3) violence or threats of violence towards persons or property of LSI and its employees; (4) improper use of email or Internet access; and (5) failure to comply with local copyright or civil laws forbidding the missappropriation, copying or alteration of copyright protected materials. Further details of LSI's Student Code of Conduct can be found at www.lsi.edu/code

17. Visa User UK, USA, Canada, New Zealand & Australia
At all LSI schools full attendance is expected. Students who enter on a student visa must attend the school for all contracted hours. Non-attendance results in a charge for course fees. For cancellations or dismissals or less than 30 days before the start of the course, 60% of all tuition fees are refunded. For cancellations or dismissals more than 30 days before the start of the course, 80% of all tuition fees are refunded.

18. Prices
LSI has the right to change prices due to tax increases, governmental actions and any laws affecting LSI's control. Prices are for courses starting in 2019. New fees, excluding homestay fees, are subject to a 25% government tax (VAT). Should this be increased, our fees will increase accordingly.

19. Fees outstanding
Tuition fees include lessons, orientation meeting, use of computer lab and Internet in school酒精, as well as online learning system, and a LSI certificate on completion of the course. LSI reserves the right to withhold the granting of a certificate (attained in part or in full) or any other fees or any other outstanding or, in some cases, not met.

20. Photography, Filming and Sound Recording
LSI reserves the right to prevent the taking of photographs or video footage of students or use their written feedback for promotional purposes, both printed and online. Any student who does not wish to participate in the process of being photographed and film will be notified. In cases of photographing or video shooting the wish not to participate, by giving written notification to the student (and their parent/ guardian if under 18) consent is given to use these photographs or video footage without further consent or notification.

21. Online Learning
Online classes may be recorded for training and quality assurance purposes. Changes to these courses and lessons must give at least 36 hours notice. Cancellations made after this time will result in a loss class.

REFUND POLICY
1. Service Charges
Unless otherwise stated, enrollment fees are non-refundable. All other service charges which are incurred by LSI, including but not limited to, courier fee, accommodation placement fee/discount and medical insurance, will not be refunded (up to a maximum charge of US$450 for LSI schools in California and US$300 in other LSI USA schools).

2. Visa denials
On written notification of a visa rejection and receipt of relevant supporting documentation, 100% of fees will be refunded less enrollment fee, accommodation placement and all other (non-optional) service charges. In all cases where a visa or visa support documentation has been issued, the relevant immigration authorities will be notified.

3. Cancellation before the course start date
All cancellations must be in writing and sent by e-mail or post. The date of arrival at LSI of the email or of the letter determines the period of notice to be applied.

(a) Tuition
UK, Australia, France & Switzerland: For cancellations made 31 days or more prior to the course start date, all tuition fees are refunded minus the registration fee. For cancellations made 3-10 days prior to the course start date, 2 weeks tuition fees are charged and the non-refundable registration fee.

New Zealand (student’s course includes the NZD4 and LSI refund policy).
For cancellations made prior to the course start date, all tuition fees are refunded. The registration fee is non-refundable.

USA:
For cancellations made 31 days or more prior to the course start date, all tuition fees are refunded minus the US$250 in non-refundable enrollment/service (non-tuition) fees in California and US$100 in non-refundable enrollment/service fees (non-tuition) fees in Massachusetts and New York.

Canada (Toronto):
For cancellations made less than 7 days after the contract is made, 75% of all tuition fees are refunded (maximum $400 refunded by LSI). For cancellations or dismissals from the program 30 days or more before the start of the course, 75% of all tuition fees are refunded. For cancellations or dismissals less than 30 days before the start of the course, 60% of all tuition fees are refunded.

Canada (Vancouver):
For cancellations made less than 7 days after the contract is made, 95% of all tuition fees are refunded (maximum $250 refunded by LSI). For cancellations or dismissals from the program 30 days or more before the start of the course, 90% of all tuition fees are refunded. For cancellations or dismissals less than 30 days before the start of the course, 80% of all tuition fees are refunded.

(b) Accommodation
UK, Canada, New Zealand, Australia, France & Switzerland: For cancellations made 14 days or more prior to the course start date, 100% of the accommodation fee will be refunded, less any penalties incurred by LSI from 3rd party suppliers. If less than 7 days’ notice is provided for a cancellation, there is a charge of either 1 week accommodation fees or any penalties incurred by LSI from 3rd party suppliers (whichever is the greater sum).

USA:
For cancellations made 7 days or more prior to the course start date, 100% of the accommodation fee will be refunded, less any actual housing costs incurred by LSI, including penalties from 3rd party suppliers. If less than 7 days’ notice is provided for a cancellation, there is a charge of either 1 week accommodation fees or any penalties incurred by LSI from 3rd party suppliers (whichever is the greater sum).

4. Termination Policy – Cancellation after the course has started
Termination will mean stopping or leaving all or part of the course. In all circumstances to the full amount paid to LSI or the relevant LSI group company because of fire, natural disaster, act of government, failure of supply or subcontractor, labour disputes or loss/damages or suspensions. LSI reserves the right to withhold the granting of a certificate to any student who does not meet the required standards during the program.

5. New Zealand Termination Policy:
LSI NZ provides termination refunds based on the package price. All termination refunds are calculated as follows according to the percentage of the course completed including the notice period. 0-90% of the programme has been completed: 70% refund of unused tuition fees, 10% of the programme has been completed: 50% refund of unused tuition fees, 30% of the programme has completed: 0% refund of unused tuition fees.

6. Method of Refund Payments
Refunds will be made via the LSI representative to whom the fees were originally paid, or via the same payment method and destination from which the fees were originally paid. Refunds made via an LSI representative will be subject to the representative’s own cancellation refund policies. All refunds will be made within 45 days of written notification unless otherwise stated.

Australia:
Refunds will be paid within 14 working days of written notification. In accordance with sections 29-33 of AEO Act 2000, providing the student has not withdrawn before the default day, LSI will pay a full refund to the student within 14 days if the course being offered does not commence on the agreed starting day or the course stops being provided at any time after it starts and before it is completed. This agreement and the right to request reimbursement/ appeals process does not prevent the student from taking action under Australia’s customer protection laws.

New Zealand: students, or LSI staff; (4) improper use of email or Internet access; and (5) failure to comply with local copyright or civil laws forbidding the misappropriation, copying or alteration of any student and ensuring that a student’s course progress may be shared with the Australian State and accrediting agencies (USA), designated authorities, the Tuition Protection Service (Australia), students’ parents, LSI staff and representatives. This information may include personal and contact details, course enrolment details and changes, and circumstances of any suspension or break by the student of any visa condition.

Refunds will be made to the student or the student's representative on completion of the course if the student has given 2 weeks’ notice in writing.

SUBJECT TO CHANGE
These Terms and Conditions may differ according to any changes in policy made by the accrediting body or government where the school is located. You will be notified at the time of booking of any such amendments. Any dispute, claim or other matter arising will be subject to the current laws in the destination country.

ALL PRICES & DATES IN THIS BROCHURE ARE CORRECT AT THE TIME OF PRINTING, BUT ARE SUBJECT TO CHANGE.
