Welcome to Newcastle

A multi-cultural and thriving city

Newcastle is the capital of the North East of England. From the moment you arrive, you will have a beautiful city to explore, shop in, eat in, and live among. With two world-class universities and over 40 thousand students, there is always something fun to do! You are also just a short drive or bus trip away from some of the most wonderful English countryside that you could ever imagine. So, whether you like big cities or small cities, or prefer the countryside, Newcastle has something for everyone.
