Living the Spanish adventure

Soria (Spain) An ideal place to study Spanish

Soria is located in the north-centre of the Iberian Peninsula. It belongs to Castilla y León and has a population of 40,000 people. Soria is a beautiful place along the shore of the river Douro and its mild temperatures in the summer make Soria a very pleasant site for outdoor activities. In addition, it is a culturally rich area with great examples of Romanic art, prehistoric paintings, historic buildings and beautiful landscapes.

Courses characteristics

- Applicants will take a level placement test in order to determine their language level. Then the students will be placed in groups according to their age and knowledge.
- Highly trained and qualified teachers specialized in teaching foreign languages to second acquisition learners.
- 45 minute classes.
- 12 students max/hour.
- Certificate of completion of the course with the language level acquired during their stay, according to the CEFR.
- During the courses, multiple activities and excursions will be organized. Students are free to attend any of them. Many of these excursions and activities will be offered for free to students.
- Full board accommodation provided in host families, residence halls or apartment housing depending on the needs of the students.

General Spanish Course

20 hours of lessons per week. Recommended for students of any level, from beginners to advanced. Perfect for those students who want to combine their learning experience with free time to visit the area, play sports and experience the Spanish culture.
