

ABOUT PAROLA SCHOOL

Parola is an Italian language school located in the heart of Florence. We offer a wide variety of course options which range from group Italian language courses to individual lessons and combined classes. Established in 1992, Parola is well-known in Florence for its professional Italian language classes and free time activities.

PREMIER LOCATION

Parola school is located in the historic center of Florence near the Basilica of Santa Croce. Our headquarters is housed in a 16th century building, designed by Giorgio Vasari.

From Parola, it only takes five minutes to walk to the Uffizi, 15 minutes to the beautiful Duomo and about 20 minutes to walk to the Accademia, where you can see Michelangelo's David.

WHY STUDY IN FLORENCE?

Florence continues to be the premiere place to study Italian due to the linguistic achievements of great Florentines such as Dante Alighieri, Boccaccio, Petrarch or Machiavelli. Florence is also the birthplace of Renaissance Art due to artists such as Michelangelo, Leonardo or Botticelli. Florence's variety of historical sights, vivacious nightlife and fantastic Italian cuisine make it the perfect place to learn the Italian language.

LANGUAGE COURSES WITH FLEXIBILITY

At Parola, we offer classes to suit the needs of language students at any level. This comprehensive method, with small class size and an opportunity to choose among a variety of flexible learning options (individual, group, or combined), ensures that we offer a program to help anyone reach their language goals. Additionally, our language courses feature a multicultural setting - students from nearly 50 different countries study at Parola.

CILS EXAM CENTER

Parola Italian language school is officially authorized by the University of Siena as an exam center for the CILS certificate.

Parola offers CILS preparation courses and held the CILS exam, twice a year, at its headquarters.
