

FACT SHEET Los Angeles

The Plus Center is located in the Northridge neighborhood of Los Angeles. Known as the jewel of San Fernando Valley, Northridge is a leafy, residential suburb with good access to the surrounding countryside and the city center.

Accommodation

On-campus accommodation is in apartments with two twin bedrooms and one shared bathroom per apartment, with a common area that includes a couch, table, and chairs. Bedrooms are furnished with a bed, a desk, a chair and a wardrobe. Bed linen and towels provided and cleaned weekly. Bed to bathroom ratio is 4:1.

Laundry: There is a laundry room in each residence hall that has washers and dryers available on a daily basis.

Cleaning: Bathrooms are cleaned weekly.

Common Spaces: Each apartment has a common area. In addition, each residence hall contains at least one common room, but these rooms need to be reserved in advance through the Campus Administrator for an extra fee. There is no safety deposit box available on campus.

Campus Facilities

Event Spaces: There is an event hall for PLUS-reserved evening events such as disco nights, talent shows, and graduation ceremonies. There is also a game room that students can use under PLUS staff supervision.

Classrooms: Classrooms are located on the campus portion of California State University, Northridge. Classrooms are technology-enabled.

Catering: The canteen is just a few minutes' walk from the accommodations. The canteen includes a grill station and entrée, salad, and dessert stations.

Sports Facilities: There is a swimming pool, volleyball court, and a basketball court next to the residence halls. They are free of charge but are only available when reserved in advance by PLUS and under PLUS staff supervision.

First Aid: There is a first aid kit in the PLUS office and it is an eight-minute drive to the nearest hospital:
