The Beginning | 1

Joana Paiva
Director of Studies & founder

Olá! I’m Prof. Joana Paiva, Director of Studies at Portuguese Connection. In 2008, after my graduation from the University of Porto, I was having second thoughts about my future as a teacher in Portugal. I’d heard so many stories about the problems of being a teacher. Everyone was talking about “thousands of unemployed teachers”, “the government is shutting down schools around the country”, “it’s time to emigrate”. But I had a “problem” with this. I was deeply in love with my language and my country. Teaching my language to others was my dream. So I wasn’t ready to turn my back and give up.

Besides, how could I leave the ocean, the sunny days, the smell of fresh fish, the delicious and breath-taking Portuguese pastry, the people smiling at each other and commenting on the weather in the metro, walking around the streets with that soft breeze on your face?

Small things actually matter!

So, after five years teaching Portuguese for foreigners for different schools and companies in Porto, I decided to follow my dream and open my own Portuguese language school, this time in Lisbon.

This project is the result of an idea that I’d had in mind for years: to create a school focused on teaching Portuguese for foreigners but with a new concept and a different approach:

A student’s experience of a lifetime.”

6 | Activities

Have fun after classes

It is extremely important to understand how the Portuguese people speak in the streets, to know their traditions and lifestyle, and, of course, their history.

At Portuguese Connection we honestly believe that learning Portuguese is not all about grammar books and written exercises in a classroom. You must go outside and experience the language in a real context.

That's why we frequently plan tours in the city and offer a wide range of activities. This is the perfect opportunity for you to eat, drink, feel and speak like a Portuguese!
