Welcome to our language school!

Our school has been in operation since the Mid-Eighties. We are proud to say that TANDEM is amongst the best-known institutes of further education in Hamburg and has a great reputation for its quality. We are supplying excellent service, meeting and training students from all over the world in a variety of courses, with an additional cultural programme and lots of opportunities to meet the locals in one of Germany’s most fascinating cities — Hamburg!

In 2017, we extended the school campus over 3 floors. We not only host our intensive and evening groups as well as individual students, but also school groups and official language tests in the house. And even though we now have more than 2,000 students per year, we still manage to maintain offering the friendly, personal atmosphere with our students and teachers.

We teach in small groups of up to 12 students per class (from time to time up to 14), thus giving everyone a chance to be actively involved and speak the language from day one.

Our professional and experienced teachers make classes easy and fun while at the same time preparing the students for internationally recognised examinations, such as the TestDaF or the European Language Certificates (TELC), which can be taken right here, as we are an accredited examination centre.

Our language school TANDEM Hamburg is situated in Hamburg’s New Town by the water, just a few steps from Hamburg’s fascinating new landmark, the ‘Elphilharmonie’ and the new district ‘HafenCity’. We are just a 3 minutes’ walk away from the ‘U3’ subway train station ‘Baumwall/Elphilharmonie’, right by the harbour, the ferries, the warehouse district ‘Speicherstadt’, landmarks such as the ‘Michel’ (St Michael's Church) or the old Elbe tunnel, and, of course our neighbouring district, St Pauli with its famous ‘Reeperbahn’.

We are an internationally recognised member of TANDEM International, ALTO, and FIYTO, and boast an efficient quality management system, giving your students maximum security and the assurance that TANDEM Hamburg is a great choice.

Faithfully,

Henning Pruess, Managing Director

TANDEM Hamburg is an accredited examination centre for the TestDaF and for the European Language Certificates (TELC). TestDaF is a language test for foreign students applying for entry to an institution of higher education in Germany. We run preparatory classes before the exams, and we are reserving spaces in the examination for our participants in these courses.

Intensive TestDaF preparation including exam registration

We’re offering a 3-week preparation course for every examination date with the following content:

- Students will get to know the various types of tasks and their assessment criteria
- Students will train supporting exam strategies and techniques
- Students will simulate real exam situations
- Students will enhance their academic vocabulary

And of course, we are counselling the participants about their progress and will give them valuable hints on how to master the examination tasks.

Schedules and prices

- 45 class hours of 45 mins.
- 3 weeks of 15 class hours each
- Monday – Friday 3:00 – 5:30 p.m.

(We make up for lessons cancelled due to public holidays; therefore, this course may end on a different weekday)

- 4 – 10 participants
- Recommendation: Students should have completed the level C1 already

Course price: 340.00 €  Course book and materials: 25.00 €  TestDaF examination fee: 195.00 €

Staying in touch: Free Internet Access

Our students have access to the Internet at the school during their stay in Hamburg. Using our student computers or their own mobile devices connected to our Wi-Fi, they may do Internet research, access online language learning facilities, or collect and send their emails while they’re here.

Cultural Programme

There are hundreds of things to do in the afternoons. We organise outings and excursions to places of interest, we have parties, and take the students on visits to cultural attractions and exhibitions. And Hamburg doesn’t close down at night! There are many theatres and cinemas; the club scene is big here, there’s live music everywhere as well as dance halls and discos for all tastes.

Student Groups

TANDEM Hamburg organises Study Tours to Hamburg for school classes, youth organisations and other groups. We welcome students for a ‘language only’ stay as well as a package full of cultural events, visits, excursions and day trips. Our groups of students stay with host families in Hamburg. We offer accommodation either as half board (breakfast and evening meal), or as full board (breakfast, packed lunch and evening meal). If requested, hostel accommodation can also be arranged.

Please tell us what your group needs, and we will immediately create a sample programme for you from the following components:

- Pick-up, Transfer and Welcome: We are meeting you at the airport / station / port and take you to TANDEM; there your host families will be waiting for you.
- German language course and TANDEM exchange: We are integrating your students in our language courses or opening special classes for you – including TANDEM partners.
- Hamburg Culture Programme: In addition to the language course, there will be a varied cultural programme in Hamburg of 2-3 items per week. Here’s a selection: Canoeing on the river Alster, tour through the city hall guided by a member of parliament, stroll through St Pauli (the ‘Kiez’), scenic Blankenese, a guided tour of the concentration camp memorial Neuengamme, visits to the Holsten brewery and the Airbus plant, a walking and boating tour through the port, the harbour city, historic warehouse district Speicherstadt, to the beaches of the river Elbe or on our fun “Mission Impossible” – an exciting city safari with many questions.
- Further Options: Bus trip to Berlin, 2 nights in a centrally located and friendly hostel (shared dorm, half board), visits and guided tours through the Bundestag (our Federal Parliament), the Jewish Museum and a sightseeing tour by bicycle through the centre of the capital. Weekend day trip to Büsum at the North Sea with a guided mudflat hiking tour, followed by a dinner, relaxation and beach life.

Please call or send a mail; we are ready to roll.

Accommodation Options

We want our students to feel at home in Hamburg. Accommodation is therefore chosen carefully, making sure all required standards are met and the places are comfortable and not too far from the school – a maximum of 30 minutes’ travel time on foot, by bike or by public transport. We have a great number of landlords and landladies who have been supplying private lodgings for years – your students will enjoy your stay with them.

We have the following options on offer:

Private Accommodation, self-catering

Students speak German not just at school; they meet German people at home. Our participants live with Germans, sometimes these are families, sometimes flat sharers, often single people who have a spare room. Of course, the students have their own single room and share kitchen and bathroom with their hosts. Students cater for themselves, either by contributing to the budget or by shopping for themselves.

Private Accommodation, bed & breakfast

As above; on top of breakfast is included; often this will mean that the students help themselves to the food, as their hosts have jobs and in the mornings may be out of the house earlier than them.

Private Accommodation, half board

Here the students can have two meals a day with a host family and enjoy the opportunity of experiencing and practicing their German language skills even more. This option should be booked well in advance of travelling and is a good idea especially for younger and not so experienced students.

TANDEM Hamburg, 01 June 2017
Visas for entry into Germany

EU and EEA (European Economic Area) nationals

EU nationals do not require a visa to enter the Federal Republic of Germany.

Non-EU and non-EEA (European Economic Area) nationals

In general, all other foreigners require a visa for stays in Germany. A visa is not required for semi-annual visits of up to three months of nationals of those countries for which the EC has abolished the visa requirement. (…)

Bodies responsible for issuing visas

Under German law (section 71 (2) of the Residence Act), the missions of the Federal Republic of Germany, i.e. its embassies and consulates-general, are responsible for issuing visas. In principle, the Federal Foreign Office is not involved in decisions on individual visa applications, nor does it have any knowledge of the status of individual applications being processed by the missions.

Visas are issued by the mission responsible for the area where the applicant has his/her ordinary residence or domicile.

Time required to process a visa application

As a rule, missions require between two and ten working days to decide on an application for a short stay visa. An application for a visa which entitles the holder to a longer stay or to take up gainful employment may take several months to process (see section 7 below).

During the peak travel season, there may be a waiting period for making the application to the German mission. If a visa is required to enter Germany, the application should therefore be submitted in good time.

Due to its location at the heart of Europe, the Federal Republic of Germany is an important destination and transit country. Millions of foreigners every year come on short visits to Germany. This has resulted in a rising number of applications, demands from applicants for better customer service and ever-louder calls from industry and politicians for quicker and even more efficient procedures for issuing visas. The uniform visa introduced under the Convention Applying the Schengen Agreement (see Schengen Agreement) has also placed additional demands on the missions.

They have to cope not only with an increased workload but also with budgetary constraints. A smaller staff must process a growing number of applications while ensuring that standards are, at the very least, maintained. The 2.2 million or so short stay visas issued in 2003 could only be processed with the help of modern technology (e.g. data storage, automatic information retrieval, machine-printed visa stickers and, most recently, incorporating photographs in visas as an increased security measure).

Application procedure

As a rule, you must submit your visa application, together with all necessary documents, in person at the German mission responsible for your place of residence. In order to avoid time-consuming requests for additional information or documentation, you should contact the respective mission well in advance of your travel dates to inquire about any special local requirements pertaining to visa formalities.

1 We assume no responsibility for accuracy; please enquire with your local consulate or embassy. The information here was gathered from http://www.auswaertigesamt.de/www/en/willkommen/einreisebestimmungen/visumangelegenheiten_html#1
Visa application forms can be obtained from the mission free of charge (in the local language). They can also be downloaded from our website and are available in the following language versions: German, German-English, German-French, German-Spanish and German-Russian. You must fill in one original application form (in some cases, more than one) and then submit it/these to the competent mission; in any case, the mission will only accept a specific language version. Please contact the mission beforehand to find out exactly which forms are required.

Requirements for the issue of short stay (Schengen) visas

(…) Under the Convention Applying the Schengen Agreement, these visas also entitle the holder to visits to Austria, Belgium, Denmark, Finland, France, Greece, Iceland, Italy, Luxembourgh, the Netherlands, Norway, Portugal, Spain and Sweden (see Schengen Agreement).

In issuing visitors’ visas, missions are bound by the relevant provisions of Community law and German aliens law (the Residence Act and its implementing ordinances). The Residence Act does not grant the right to a visitor’s or tourist visa. A visa may be granted provided the applicant’s presence does not prejudice or endanger the interests of the Federal Republic of Germany. The applicant must prove that he/she has adequate funds for the intended stay and may not claim any public funds in this connection. Should the applicant be unable to finance the journey and stay from his/her own funds, a host resident in Germany may pledge to cover all costs associated with the trip, including the cost of any medical treatment.

Under sections 66 ff. of the Residence Act, such a pledge is normally to be made to the alien’s authority in the host’s place of residence in Germany.

Following a European Council decision of 22 December 2003, as of 1 June 2004 visa holders are as a rule required to have travel health insurance with a minimum coverage of EUR 30,000 that is valid for the entire Schengen area. If possible this insurance should be taken out in the applicant’s own country, but it can also be purchased by the host.

Moreover, missions must be satisfied of the applicant’s willingness and ability to return to his/her own country. (…)

Requirements for the issue of visas for longer stays

As a rule, all foreigners require visas for stays of more than three months or stays leading to the holder taking up gainful employment.

Not subject to this requirement are citizens of the EU, the EEC countries and of Australia, Canada, Israel, Japan, New Zealand, the Republic of Korea, Switzerland and the United States of America, who may obtain any residence permit that may be required after entering Germany. Citizens of all other countries who intend to come to Germany for such a stay must apply for visas at the competent mission before arriving in the country. Visa applications must be approved by the relevant aliens authority in Germany, i.e. the aliens authority in the place where the applicant intends to take up residence. Visa application forms for a long-term stay (longer than three months) can be obtained from the relevant mission free of charge. They can also be downloaded from our website and are available in the following language versions: German, English, French and Italian. You must fill in at least two original application forms and then submit these to the competent mission; in any case, the mission will only accept a specific language version. Please contact the mission beforehand to find out exactly which forms are required.

The approval procedure usually takes up to three months, in some cases longer, since the alien’s authority will normally consult with other authorities (e.g. the Federal Employment Agency). In cases where visa applications must be approved by the relevant aliens authority, missions may only issue visas once they have obtained this approval.

The aliens’ authorities are also the competent authorities with regard to measures and decisions pertaining to residence law for foreigners who already reside in Germany. Aliens authorities are not subordinate agencies of the Federal Foreign Office, and the Federal Foreign Office cannot influence their decisions. They are in fact accountable to and operate under the supervision of the respective interior ministries and senators of the Federal States.

Flights and Airports

There are regular flights from all major airports to Hamburg, either to the centrally located Helmut-Schmidt-Airport in Hamburg-Fuhlsbüttel (25 minutes by S-Bahn from Hamburg Main Station) or to Lübeck (45 mins. by shuttle bus), the latter served by budget airlines such as Ryan Air.

There is a direct connection by S-Bahn (city train) from Fuhlsbüttel airport to Hamburg Hauptbahnhof (5 minutes from the school) and a shuttle bus from Lübeck airport to Hamburg ZOB (Central Bus Station) close to Hauptbahnhof.

Grab a cab? Taxis in Hamburg

A taxi ride in Germany is more expensive than in many other countries. As we have such a good public transport system, students do not really need to use taxis a lot. If they do, the tariff is fixed and meters are obligatory; long-distance trips (from one town to another) may be booked at a fixed price.
