Teenagers and Young Learners

Closed group courses are offered throughout the year at CLC on Golf Club Road or at The Codrington School (The International School of Barbados) in the parish of St John.

These courses are tailor-made to take the needs and special interests of the group into account. Courses typically include:

- 15 hours of tuition per week
- an inclusive afternoon programme of activities and excursions
- full day weekend excursions
- airport transfers
- homestay accommodation (in shared rooms with another member of the group)

If you would like a quotation for a group please email us with your requirements. We need to know:

- the dates that the group would like to travel
- the number of students in the group plus the number of group leaders
- the English language level(s) of the students
- the number of classes required e.g. 30 students in the group divided into 3 classes of 10 or 2 classes of 15
- the age range of the students
- specific requirements for the language part of the stay
- requests for a social programme
- accommodation requests

High School Programmes

The Codrington Language Centre works closely with The Codrington School www.codrington.edu.bb

The Codrington School is an International Baccalaureate (IB) World School which is authorized to offer all three of the IB's 'gold standard' educational programmes: the Primary Years Programme (PYP), for children generally aged three through eleven; the Middle Years Programme for students generally aged between 11 and 16; and the Diploma Programme (DP), for young people generally aged 16 through 18.

The school currently has students of 41 nationalities while well-qualified teachers come from eighteen different countries. It is an international school whose philosophy and practices model and reflect those of the IB, particularly stressing adherence by all members of the school's community to the IB's learner profile. Superior teaching enables the school to offer a liberal, progressive IB education, based on solid research and best practice from all over the world, including our host nation of Barbados.

Hotel Accommodation

The Southern Palms Beach Club is our partner hotel on the south coast. For further information please refer to: <http://www.southernpalms.net>

For information about other hotel accommodation in Barbados, please visit www.visitbarbados.org/barbados-accommodation-search.aspx

Airport Transfers

FREE airport transfers are provided for all students in homestay accommodation. Hosts collect students from the airport on arrival and take them back to the airport at the end of their stay.

Students in self catering or hotel accommodation can book a transfer through Codrington Language Centre if required. The charge is US$ 25.00 for a one-way transfer.

Visas for Barbados

Do you need a visa to visit Barbados? Check the following official website to find out how long a visitor may stay http://immigration.gov.bb/pages/Visa\_Requirements.aspx

We advise students to apply for a “student visa” if they are staying for longer than 3 months. Please contact Codrington Language Centre for information about this and the process involved.
