About ELC

The English Language Centre (ELC) at the University of Cape Town (UCT) was established in 2015. We are part of the Humanities Faculty and we operate in the Rosedale building on Hiddingh Campus. The campus is shared with the Drama and Fine Arts departments, making it a vibrant place to be.

The campus is in the centre of Cape Town with easy access to local attractions. It includes two theatres and an exhibition space with frequent events. The university library and computer room are available for use. UCT's private bus service connects you to the main campus with a wide range of sporting and recreational options such as clubs, societies and student events.
