

SUNDAY – OUTING LISBON

DESCRIPTION: Tired of the boring Wikipedia tours? Try something different and new! There is a fun and cheap way to get to know the city. Wild Walkers has been the pioneer of Free Walking Tours in Lisbon since January 2011. They are still the number one company in the city. The tours last around 2 ½ hours and run 365 days a year in any weather conditions.

WALKING TOURS: Alfama Tour (Old Town Tour) and Bairro Alto Tour (Bohemian Tour)

MEETING POINT: Rossio Square (aka Praça Dom Pedro IV) at the fountain in front of the statue. Look for the red T-shirt.

SCHEDULE: Alfama tour: Tuesdays, Thursdays, Saturdays and Sundays at 10:30 a.m., Bairro Alto Tour: Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays at 10:30 a.m.

RESERVATION: No reservation needed, just show up at the meeting point and go to the guide.

AVERAGE TIME: 2 and a half hours

PRICE: Free!

NOTE: This tour is perfect for tourist on the budget but it's good to tip the guide if you had a good time, and you certainly will!
