

TUESDAY – FADO NIGHT!

DESCRIPTION: Considered the national music of Portugal, Fado was elected World Heritage by UNESCO in 2012. We take you to experience an authentic Portuguese night, watch a live Fado show and try some typical food and drinks. Our knowledgeable guides will tell you the history behind the music and explain to you the meaning of the songs as the show goes on. But before that, just to warm you up a little bit you'll try a shot of Ginjinha (the local drink of Lisbon made with Morello cherries, cinnamon, sugar and aguardente) in a delicious glass made of chocolate.

MEETING POINT: Rossio Square (aka Praça Pedro IV) at the fountain in front of the statue (there are two fountains). Look for the red T-shirt.

SCHEDULE: Tuesdays, Thursdays, Saturdays and Sundays at 8:30 p.m.

RESERVATION: No reservation needed, just show up at the meeting point and go to the guide.

AVERAGE TIME: 90 min

PRICE: ADULT 15€

NOTE: The tour includes: 1 shot of Ginjinha in a glass made of chocolate, 90-min live Fado show, 1 drink (beer, wine, soda or juice, diverse Portuguese appetizers (veggie option is available)
