I want to study in YES English, What should I do?

Prior to arriving in Malaysia, the following Applies and the Student can track his application status after submission through - www.educationMalaysia.gov.my:-

BEFORE ARRIVAL ACTIVITIES:

1. The student must have a Current Passport with more than 12 months validity.
2. A current medical checkup is necessary to be included on the Form that we will send to the student by e-mail.
3. When the student gets the medical result he or she will send it with the visa requirements to US.
4. We will send the offer letter to the student with receipt upon receiving the documents and the visa & registration fees.
5. We will submit the student’s application to ‘Education Malaysia Global Services’ for approval.
6. When the Approval is obtained by us, we will send it to the student.
7. The student shall then proceed to the nearest Malaysian Embassy and submit the passport with the Approval for his visa which normally takes a few days.
8. The Embassy will provide the visa within the passport for a one time student entry into Malaysia.
9. The student should inform US within two weeks in advance of travelling, if he or she requires accommodation.
10. The student will upon booking his flight and receiving the ticket, send a copy at least one week in advance to US so that we can arrange for travel from the airport to the appropriate place of accommodation.
THE DAY THE STUDENT ARRIVES IN MALAYSIA:

• Upon YES English’s representative meeting the student prior to Immigration clearance, he will be directed towards a location to meet our personnel to release for immigration clearance arrival.
• The student will provide his or her passport to our personnel and receive official confirmation that the passport has been received for visa time extension.
• Our personnel will transport the student to the place of accommodation.

THE DAY AFTER ARRIVING IN MALAYSIA THE STUDENT SHALL:-

• Have a medical examination within 7 days after arrive Malaysia.
• Attend the orientation in his or her first day of study.
